BURFORD PROBATE DOCUMENTS

Robert MYLES alias Summer of Burford

Admon. 1554

Oxfordshire Record Office, MSS Wills Oxon, Archdeaconry Register 180.237

Administration (commonly known as an admon) is granted when someone dies intestate. They generally follow a standard formula, in Latin, which has not been fully transcribed here.

In the Oxford Act Books the record of the grant is usually in three parts:

- on the left of the page: X of [place name] has died intestate
- on the right: on [date] a [named] court official of a [named] court made a grant of administration of the goods of X of [place name] to [name of administrator(s)] and the administrator(s)' relationship to the deceased. Sometimes another named person is present to receive the grant for the administrator.
- across the page: value of the inventory [frequently not stated].
