

William Knighte, Lutterworth, 1634

The Inventorie of the goods of William Knighte late of Lutterworth in the countie of Leicester deceased, Taken the twentieth day of December Anno Dom[ini] One thousand Six hundred thirty & foure by Edward Cooke, Frances Hollyorke & others, as followeth /prize:/

	£	s	d
Imprimis in the parlour and chamber twoo joined bedsteads prized at	00	13	04
Item twooe coverlets 2 blanketts, and one paire of Boulsters	00	06	08
Item foure paire of Sheetes prized at	00	07	06
Item Three Chestes, and three little coffers, prized at	00	13	04
Item one Table, one Cubboard and one forme prized at	00	13	04
Item twooe little Brass potts one little Kettle, one Brass pan, & a little furnish	01	00	00
Item Six little pewter platters two pewter candlesticks, w[i]th other small necessarie things	00	10	00
Item foure Cowls or Tubbs, twooe Kinnells and twooe wooden pailles	00	11	00
Item twooe wheeles, foure Cusheons twooe stooles, and twooe Chaires prized at	00	06	00
Item Six wooden Boardes prized at	00	06	08
Item halfe a dozen of Table napkinsand twooe dozen of Trenchers prized at	00	02	06
Item one paire of great Bellowes one Steddey Tongues and hammers prized at	01	10	00
Item one fireiron, one spit & Cobberdes potthinges, and other small irons prized at	00	06	00
Item one Sowe and one pigg prized at	00	06	08
Item his Apparell purse and money	01	00	00
The whole sum is	08	13	00
The whole and inst forme of all the Debtcs owing to divers persons by this defunct at the Tyme of his death is	06	18	04