

Avis Austin/Awsten of Basingstoke, widow, 1604
Ref: Hants. RO 1604AD/04

The inventory indented of the goods and chattels of Avise Awsten widow of Basingstoke deceased, taken, made and appraised the eleventh day of September 1604 by Robert Stocker and Florentine Eiles

	£	s	d
First a cupboard, a chair, a form and two joined stools	0	13	4
Item five platters, six pottingers, two saucers, one basin, one pewter candlestick, one pint pot, two little salt cellars and two flour pots, one pewter dish	0	7	8
Item three brass pots, three kettles, one cauldron, one chafing dish and two brasen candlesticks	0	13	4
Item two broches, three pot-hangers, two pothooks, one frying pan, two andirons and two old dripping pans, one leather bottle	0	4	8
Item a powdering trough, two kivers, one bowl, one half bushel measure, one old firkin and a tub	0	1	4
Item a joined bedstead with a joined tester, a joined truckle bedstead and a little piece of wainscot	0	10	0
Item a featherbed, a feather bolster and two feather pillows	0	13	4
Item one old flockbed and a flock bolster	0	3	4
Item a joined chest and six cofferes	0	10	0
Item one pair of lockram sheets, three canvas sheets, two pillow beres, two towels, one old coverlet and a blanket	0	6	8
Item an old cupboard	0	1	4
Item a spinning wheel, a reel and a grapple	0	1	0
Item in money	10	0	0
Sum total	14	18	0

Probate granted to Edward Austen, son of Basingstoke, baker, 12 December 1604. Thomas Harmewood, bricklayer, Basingstoke also mentioned.