

Inventory of John Palmer of Dymock, Gloucestershire, 1704 (GA reference 1704/14)

A treue and p[er]fect Inventory of all & singular the Goods Cattles Chattles & Credits of John palmer of the p[ar]ish of Dimocke in the County of Glouc[este]r Black smith deceased taken vallued & ap[ra]ised the ninet[e]jenth day of Apill Anno[rum] Do[mi]ni 1704: by wee whose names are here unto subscribed:

£ s d

Imp[rim]is The deseaseds wearing Aparill & money in pruss.....02 : 00 : 00

It[e]m[s] in the hall

one warming pa[n]n two little Brass Kettles two small Brass potts one paire of pothooks one Brass posnet one Brass Chafing dish two skimers and one Basting spoone01 : 06 : 06

It[e]m[s] in the chamber over the hall

one feather Bed one feather Boulster two pillows two old bed clothes one old bed stead and matt one coverlid one old li[n]nen wheel one old woolen wheel one small cask and three sieves02 : 10 : 00

It[e]m[s] in the parlor chamber about two bushell of corn of all sorts and two small parcels of meale about a bushell and halfe of pease one old dow sceelee one old sarch one old hair seive three old coffe[r]s two small old caskes one box one peck one malt seive two males01 : 00 : 00

It[e]ms in the parlour or Lower chamber one old bedstead matt and cord one feather bed one feather boulder one blankett one Red Rugg one Low press one old safe one small old coffe[r] two littles boxes four pair of hurden sheets one pair of flaxen sheets two pillow bears one dozen of flaxen napkins and table cloth one dozen hurden napkins one old hurden table cloth05 : 05 : 06

It[e]m[s] in the Cyder house and elsewhere eight Cyder caskes of all sorts two small malt drinke caskes one old Bucking tub one wash tub two small old tubs two old pailles and a lanthorn.....01 : 18 : 00

It[e]m a small fleck of bacon with a small parcell of household provission00 : 10 : 00

It[e]m one table board and frame one firme one Joynt chair two old saggin chairs one Joynt stool four other old stooles one little old table four towells one wallett and a ashing cloth..01 : 02 : 06

It[e]m Eleaven small dishes of pewter of all sorts two porringers one pewter candlestick one little pewter cup one pewter salt two little brass candlesticks and five pewter spoons01 : 01 : 00

17 : 03 : 06 *

* [Actual sum is £16 13s 6d]

[NEXT PAGE]

It[e]m two small spitts one pair of cobbons a pair of anirons one fire shovell one pair of tongs one pair of bellows some fire linckes one small fender two stills one tining drippin pan one tining pan one grid Iron one fleshforke one old peel two Iron candlesticks one old collin bill one old Hatchett a small pick one looking glass with bottles mugs bolles dishes trays and all other Implements of housewifery in and about the house not herein mention[e]d.....00 : 14 : 00

Item[s] in the Shopp

one old Anvile and block, one old Bickiron and block one old vise, twelve Hammers of all sorts four old pair of tongs one pair of barnacles one great halter one pair of shakles one pair of smiths Bellows one pair of pinners one butteris two oagers one gimlett drow and three bitts four old files five clifts two pritshells one beam and scales.....03 : 00 : 04

It[e]m two hundred one quarter and three pounds of new Iron02 : 02 : 00

It[e]m three hundred three quarter and twenty four pounds of old Iron01 : 17 : 00

It[e]m new horse shoes ox ues? and nailes hucks Eyes and other wrought Iron seaventy pounds weight00 : 14 : 06

It[e]ms in the garden and elsewhere one old grindstone and trow a parcell of coles a small parcell of hogshead staff and about two load of wood.....01 : 04 : 00

It[e]m a store sow in Harry00 : 12 : 00

It[e]m by money Due by Bill and Bonds19 : 00 : 00

It[e]m by money Due for worke02 : 11 : 06

this side	31 : 15 : 04
the other side	17 : 03 : 06

Total 48 : 18 : 10

Thomas Hill
Will[iam]? Weale
Rich[ard] Hill
W[illia]m Hooper jun[ior]

[Exhibitum etc]