

Edward Woollman Lutterworth, 1635

A true and perfect Inventorie of the goods of Edward Woollman, late of Lutterworth in the Cou[nty] of Leic: deceased, Taken By Thomas Instey gent: Robert Bradgate sen yeom[an] Gabriell Abbott mercer, and others, the foure and twenty day of Febrary Anno dom[ini] 1634 as followeth

	£	s	d
Imprimis in the hall, one Table, one Bench, one forme, one little Table, Three Chaires, foure Cusheons, fireirons with divers other small thinges	00	12	06
Item in wheeles Boards pailles, and other wooden wares in the Boulting house	01	08	00
Item in Brass Pewter Barrells, and other small necessarie Things	02	16	00
Item in the Parlo[ur], one Bedstead, one featherbed one matrice, foure Pillowes, twooe Coverletts and Blanketts, with Curtaines and vallens, one cubbord twooe Coffers, and one Chaire	07	00	00
Item in the Chamber over the Parlo[ur], twooe lowe Bedsteads, Three Coffers, and other small thinges	00	13	04
Item in Linens, as Sheetes Towells napkins pillowbeares and Tablecloathes	02	10	00
Item in Corne, oates, pease, maulte and hay	08	10	00
Item Three Beastes	05	06	08
Item in horses Mares or Geldinges	04	03	04
Item twooe Swine	00	16	00
Item one Carte, with Geares ploughes and harrowes with all other small Implements belonging to Husbandarie	03	00	00
Item the winter corne in the feild	04	10	00
Item the lease of the house whomstead & land	40	00	00
Item his Apparrell	00	13	04
The whole sum of all is	81	19	02

(no signatures)