

John Hockly of Farleigh Wallop, yeoman, 1697

Ref: Hants. RO 1697A/073

In the name of God Amen, I John Hockly of the parish of Farleigh Wallop in the county of Southampton yeoman, being of perfect mind and memory (praise be therefore given to Almighty God), do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following, having committed my body to the ground, and recommended my soul into the hands of my merciful God. I do dispose the temporal estate, with which it has pleased God to bless me, as follows.

Imprimis I will that all my debts and funeral expenses be paid and discharged.

Item I give and bequeath to my eldest son, Richard the sum of ten pounds, and to his two daughters Jane and Anne each of them five pounds. Item I give to John Henry and Richard, the children of my son John, each of them five pounds and to the said John the eldest son of my above named son John the bed which I have usually lain upon with one pair of sheets and all other furniture to the said bed belonging.

Item I give to my said grandson John Hockly the table and tablecloth thereunto belonging with the flat box and cupboard in my lodging chamber, with my biggest brewing brass kettle. Item I give to my granddaughter Anne Lee ten pounds to be paid to whom my executors shall think fit for the breeding of her up. And to the said Anne Lee five pounds when she comes to the age of one and twenty or is married.

Item I give to my granddaughter Elizabeth Lee five pounds to be paid likewise at the age of one and twenty, or when she shall be married, which shall first happen. And all the residue of my personal estate I give to my sons Richard and John whom I constitute joint executors of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the thirteenth day of January in the fifth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord and Lady William and Mary etc., AD 1693.
