

Robert Tilborow/Tilbury of Farleigh Wallop, 1668

Ref: Hants. 1668B/56

In the name of God Amen, I Robert Tilborow of Farleigh Wallop in the county of Southampton being in perfect sense and memory, do make and appoint this my last will and testament in manner following. Imprimis it is my will that the reversion of the lands and tenement properly belonging to me now in the possession of James Fran in the parish of St Mary Bourne being parcel of the manor of Hurstbourne Priours and lately purchased by me of the trustees of the estate of Henry Wallop esq. be set aside and sold to pay my just debts. Also I do appoint and desire my very loving friends Emanuel Shepheard and Thomas Hunt to be overseers of this my last will and testament. Also the two leases which I have of the meadow called Potters and of Millfield, part of Farleigh Park, valued at three score pounds per annum I do give and bequeath to my said friends Emanuel Shepheard and Thomas Hunt for one whole year and no longer, that is thus that the said Emanuel Shepheard receive of the profits of it twenty pounds of current English money and the said Thomas Hunt do receive forty pounds of current English money, which said two sums do make one year's rent according to value. The remaining part of the said two leases which will be four years after I do hereby my last will and testament give and bequeath to be equally shared and divided between my four brothers Edward Tilborow, William Tilborow, Francis Tilborow and John Tilborow they or the either of them paying to my father and mother, or to the survivor of them, forty pounds of lawful English money out of the first profits that shall arise out of it. Also I give and bequeath to my loving sister Ann Tilborow all my linen and my wife's clothes and all other my goods within doors, also the debt due to me from my master Henry Wallop esq. which is about one hundred pounds more or less I do thus bequeath: first I do give twenty pounds of it to my godson Emanuel Shepheard the younger to bind him apprentice to some honest trade or occupation, and forty pounds to my loving sister Ann Tilborow, the residue I do leave to be disposed of by the discretion of my above named overseers. Also I do give to my loving friend George White five pounds to buy him ring. Also as for the twenty four pounds or thereabouts which is due to me from Mr Richard Spittle, it is my will that (if it please God I do depart this life), he be discharged from payment of it, and by virtue of this my will is he shall be discharged. Also as for the seventeen pounds five shillings due to me from Mr William Moore of Sherborne St John I give to discharge legacies by me given. Also I give to my loving friend Hugh White three pounds to buy him a ring. Also I give to Mr Edward Moreing rector of Farleigh and Cliddesden forty shillings to buy him a ring. Also I give to Agnes Porter living at the Maidenhead in Basingstoke forty shillings to buy her a ring. Also I give to Mary White daughter of Hugh White twenty shillings to buy her a ring. Also I give and bequeath to my uncle Thomas Tilborow five pounds. Also I give to John King my fellow servant twenty shillings to buy him a ring or a pair of gloves. Also I give to Mary Shepheard, wife of Emanuel Shepheard my brother in law, forty shillings to buy her a ring. Also eight pounds that is due to me from Edward Panford of Ellisfield and also eight pounds that will be due to me at our Lady Day next coming from Richard Hannington and William Lamb for the rent of Potters I give to pay my said legacies. Also I give to my loving friend Mr John Feilding of Sherborne St John forty shillings to buy him a ring. Also I give to my loving friends Emanuel Shepheard and Thomas Hunt my overseers forty shillings apiece to buy each of them a ring. Also I give to Mary White, wife of Hugh White, forty shillings to buy her a ring. Also I give my sorrel gelding to my above said friend Thomas Hunt. As for my two colts I give them to pay my said legacies. Also I give to Mr Richard Spittle forty shillings to buy him a ring. Also it is my will that my said overseers do satisfy and pay Mr Moring of Cliddesden thirty pounds for which I am indebted to him upon bond, and they, my said overseers, to have the disposing of the timber that was appointed for the payment of the said thirty pounds. Also I give to my mother the two cows I have. Given under my hand and seal this twenty fourth day of February 1667 and in the twentieth year of his majesty's reign.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of us

Ann Porter

Geo: White

Ro: Tilborow

Probate granted 6 June 1668, Emanuel Shephard and Thomas Hunt executors.

An inventory of the goods and chattels of Ro: Tilburow of Farleigh who deceased 3 May 1668.

	£	s	d Imprimis his wearing clothes and money in his purse	10	0	0
His wife's wearing clothes	12	0	0
And her wearing linen	4	0	0
Scarves, gloves and hoods	1	10	0
Table linen	6	10	0
Four beds with the linen and all other
furniture belonging to them	23	6	9
Plate and things	9	15	0
In pewter	1	15	4
Two pairs of andirons	0	10	4
Tinnen things	0	10	0
Two chests with boxes and trunks	2	10	0
A little cabinet with 3 cushions	1	0	0
Chairs and stools	1	7	4
Cups and drinking glasses	0	6	2
Two table boards	0	16	0
Brass with one iron pot	1	15	0
One jack, two pairs of fire pans and tongs with a pair of rake andirons, one iron bar and a fender with other small things belonging to the fire	1	16	4
One stone mortar	0	6	0
Seven barrels with other wooden vessels	2	16	6
Six stalls of bees	3	0	0
One saddle and a pair of boots	0	19	0
One looking glass	0	16	0
Two guns	1	12	0
Two colts	6	0	0
One gelding	5	0	0

Robert Tilborow/Tilbury of Farleigh Wallop, 1668

One lease of a meadow at Farleigh Wallop called Potters and a lease of a plot of ground called Millfield in Farleigh Park of five acres apiece which is valued at

180 0 0

One cow

3 0 0

Item desperate debts

80 0 0

valued by us

Sum total

357 17 9

Thomas Matchwick

John Newman