

BASINGSTOKE 1851 CENSUS HO 107 1681

District 12a

All that part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing at and including the cottage on the south side of Winchester Street at the corner of Back Lane; thence continuing and taking all the houses on the south side of the said street to and taking the house of Mr Edward Adams brewer; then turning up and taking all the houses on the west side of Victoria Street the Cattle Market public house and the cottages in Back Lane near thereto; from thence returning to and taking all the houses on the east side of the said Victoria Street to and taking the Tuns public house in Winchester Street aforesaid; thence continuing on the south side of the said Winchester Street and taking all the houses from the said Tuns public house to and including the house of Mr Prescott; thence continuing and taking all the houses on the south side of London Street including the almshouses in such street; thence turning into Hackwood Lane and taking all the houses on the west side thereof; thence into Back Lane and taking all the houses on the north side thereof including the houses of Mr Willis near the Angel Yard; then returning to and taking all the houses on the south side thereof; then into Hackwood Lane again taking the residence of the houses on the west side thereof and all the houses on the east and west sides of the Cliddesden Road continuing on to and including Prospect Place to including and terminating with the farm house on the west side of the said Cliddesden Road.

The enumerator occasionally abbreviated Winchester Street to Winton Street. This has been amended in the transcription.

District 12b

All that part of the said parish of Basingstoke commencing at and including the cottage lately called Travellers Rest on the north side of Winchester Street and all the houses on the south side of the said street up to the corner of Barge Lane; then taking all the cottages in that lane and the house of Lady Colquhoun; then returning to and continuing with the houses on the said north side of Winchester Street to the direction post near the corner of Sarum Place taking the house of Mrs Dyer there and all other the houses in Sarum Place; then returning to and taking the Wheatsheaf Inn and continuing with other the houses on the said north side of Winchester Street to and including the houses of Mr Charles Paice and the house of Mr Meatyard; thence continuing and taking all the residence of the houses on the said north said of Winchester Street to and including the house of Mr Charlton grocer; thence across the Market Place to and by and including the house of Mr Aburrow; then turning to and taking the house on the north side of London Street to the corner of and then turning into and taking all the houses in Chequers Close, New Road, Mount Pleasant and the houses of Thomas Ballard; then returning back into and taking all the residence of the houses on the said north side of London Street to the London Turnpike Gate; then returning back to and taking the White Hart public house and the houses on the south side of London Street to and including the house of Miss Harding; thence turning into and taking all the houses on the east side of Hackwood Lane to and including the cottage of John Franklin; thence across the road and taking all the houses on the west side of Hackwood Lane and Mr Appletree's lodge on the east side of Hackwood Road; thence into and including the cottage of Matthew Paice on Basingstoke Common and terminating with the same.

District 12c

All that part of the said parish of Basingstoke commencing at and including the Ship public house in Church Street taking the houses on the west side of the said street including the house of Mr Thomas Lodder and the house of Mr W Howard and continuing the west side of the said street down to and including the Vicarage; thence proceeding to and taking the houses on the west side of Chapel Street up to and including the Turnpike House; thence to the Great Western Railway station returning back to the houses on the east side of Chapel Street to and including the Rose public house; thence across the road and taking the Manor Farm and continuing with and taking all the houses on the east side of the said Church Street including the Rose and Crown public house and the house of Mr Maskell; thence continuing and taking the residue of the houses on the east side of Church Street aforesaid to including the terminating with the house of Messrs Simons Greenfield ironmongers.

District 12d

All that part of the said parish of Basingstoke commencing at and including the house of Mr George Steer Baker on the west side of Wote Street; thence and taking the houses on the same side of the said street and including the house of Mr Richard Wallis; thence turning into and taking the houses north and south in Potters Lane excluding the Rose and Crown public house and the house of Mr Thomas Maskell; then returning to and taking the Cross Keys public house and continuing with the other houses on the west side of Oat Street; thence turning into and taking all the houses in Narrow Lane returning back to and taking the house of Mr William Cranston; thence taking the houses to and including the Barge Inn public house; thence across the road to the cottage of George Hayward; thence to and taking the cottages behind the late Malthouse near the Goat returning back to and taking the cottages on the south side of Eastrop Lane continuing on to and taking the houses at the bottom of Chapel Close as far as the house of Mr George Bond; thence back again to the house of Mr Henry Savage; thence taking all the houses on the east side of Oat Street to and including and terminating at the Fox and Hounds public house.

The enumerator has referred to Oat Street but actually records it as the modern spelling of Wote Street.

District 12e

All that part of the said parish of Basingstoke commencing at and including the cottage of Serjeant Baldwin near the Old Silk Mill taking all the houses on the south side of the road including the vicarage, the Manor Farm, the Barge public house and the house of George Hayward; then taking all the houses north and south of Water Lane; thence back to and taking the house occupied by Thomas Loader and then turning up and taking all the houses on the south side of Totterdown to and including the house late of Charles Harmsworth; thence across the road there to the cottages in the small Chalk Dell taking the house of Mr Mills, the Windmill House and the cottages near thereto including the cottages of William Clark; thence back to the Castle public house on the north side of Totterdown including Thumwoods Cottages, the four Almshouses then on to the cottages at the corner of and turning up and taking all the houses east and west of Bunnian Place; thence to the South Western Railway station house; thence returning back down Bunnian Place to and taking the house of Thomas Dohoo patten maker thence proceeding to and taking all the houses on the north side of North Brook Street excluding the Rose public house; thence to the house of Messrs May and the houses on the same side of the said street; thence to Fords Buildings up to including and terminating with the Old Pest House.

District 12f

All that part of the said parish of Basingstoke commencing at and including the house of the Reverend William Ring Workman near the church; thence taking all the houses in the Church Yard; thence proceeding to and taking all the houses in Church Lane to and taking the houses north and south of Cross Street excluding the houses of Mr F Lodder; and thence taking the houses on the east and west side of New Street excepting the houses of Mr Meatyard and Mr Charles Paice; thence back to and taking all the houses in Pear Tree Corner and Flaxpool the cottages late of Noah Lanes, Castlemans Cottage, in the Meadows near; thence to and taking the houses on the Salisbury Road proceeding onto and taking South and West Ham and the cottages near thereto; thence to including and terminating with the Bury Farm.

District 12g

All that part of the said parish of Basingstoke commencing at and including Hackwood Lodge occupied by Matthew Paice; thence to and taking the Keeper's House in Hackwood Park; thence back to and taking Skippets Inn; thence to the two public houses on the Cliddesden Road; thence on to the cottages on the west side of the said road; thence on to the new cottage on the west side of Cliddesden Street late belonging to William and Richard Curtis; thence to the three cottages belonging to Mr Moth and the cottage of Thomas Curtis at the back of Cliddesden Street aforesaid; thence to the farm house of Mr Whistler; thence to the cottages of Cranborne Lodge; thence to the house of Henry Lovington near to and taking the Stag and Hounds public house; then on to the Down Grange and the Old Down Farms to Buckskin Farm and the toll house on the Salisbury Road; thence back to and taking the cottages at Worting Bottom; thence proceeding on to and taking the cottages on the north and south sides of the Turnpike Road to and including the toll house at Cross Ways Farm.

District 12h

All that the remaining part of the said parish of Basingstoke commencing at and including North Ham Farm; thence to and taking the cottage of William Hunt Senior nearly opposite the Castle public house in Totterdown and taking all the houses in the said parish of Basingstoke down Gas House Lane on to and including Penton's Mill and Farm near and terminating.

The enumerator has incorrectly entered Gas House Lane as Glass House Lane. This has been amended in the transcription.