

John Smith of Basingstoke, clothier, 1638

Ref: Hants. RO 1638B/75

In the name of God Amen the seventh day of August AD 1638 and in the ~~thirteenth~~ <sup>fourteenth</sup> year of the reign of our most gracious sovereign Lord Charles by the grace of God King of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, defender of the faith etc., I John Smith of Basingstoke in the county of Southampton clothier, being of good and perfect health, mind and memory (thanks be therefore given to Almighty God), do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following. First and principally I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God my Maker and Creator hoping and assuredly trusting that after this life ended I shall be received into his everlasting kingdom through the only merits, death and passion of Jesus Christ my Saviour and Redeemer and by no other merits or means whatsoever, and my body being earthly I commit the same to the earth again to be interred and buried by the discretion of my executors and overseers hereafter named. And for such temporal goods whereof the Lord of his bounty has bestowed on me in this life I will, devise and bequeath the same in manner and form following. First I will that all such debts as I duly or truly owe unto any man shall be truly paid in as convenient time as may be after my decease, which being done and performed item then I give and bequeath unto the poor people of Basingstoke aforesaid five pounds of current English money to be paid and distributed amongst them immediately after my decease. Item I give and bequeath unto the poor people of Preston Candover in the county of Southampton aforesaid ~~five~~ two pounds of lawful money of England to be paid unto them in ~~five~~ two years next after my decease by twenty shillings per annum. Item I give and bequeath unto the poor people of Barton Stacey in the county of Southampton aforesaid five pounds of lawful money of England to be paid unto them in five years next after my decease by twenty shillings per annum. Item I give and bequeath unto the poor people of the parish of Wield in the county of Southampton aforesaid ten pounds of lawful money of England as a stock for the good and benefit of the said poor people forever, and to be put forth yearly and every year from henceforth for ever at the rate of twelve pence in the pound profit by the discretion and good liking of the Ministers, churchwardens and overseers of the poor of the same place for the time being. And the benefit from time to time arising of, or by the loan, or putting forth of the same to be from time to time distributed amongst the said poor people by the discretion and good liking of the said Ministers, churchwardens and overseers. Item I give and bequeath to and amongst eight poor people of the town of Basingstoke aforesaid such as shall be of honest fame and report and of the ages of three score years and upwards to be chosen by the vicar, lecturer and four of the approved men of the said town of Basingstoke, whereof four of them to be men widowers and the other four women widows, four pounds of lawful money of England yearly forever after my decease to be issuing and going forth due and payable out of all those my messuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments situate, lying and being in the town and fields of Basingstoke aforesaid and to be bestowed yearly forever in woollen cloth and linen cloth for the making of every of the said men a coat with skirts and a shirt apiece and every of the said women a waistcoat and a smock apiece.

Item I give unto my sister Clare the wife of Thomas Strangwitch five pounds of lawful money of England to be paid unto her within one year next after my decease. Item I give unto my sister Margerye the wife of Thomas Palmer ten pounds of lawful money of England to be paid unto her within one year next after my decease. Item I give and bequeath unto my kinswoman Agnes the wife of Richard D[.]ngton of Odiham in the County of Southampton carrier, twenty pounds of lawful money of England to be paid unto her within one year next after my decease. Item I give and bequeath unto my kinswoman Amye the wife of George Edwardes of Basingstoke aforesaid fifty pounds of lawful money of England to be paid unto her within two years next after my decease. Item I give and bequeath unto Robert Smith the son of my brother Daniell Smith deceased, Thomas Strangwitch my brother in law's son and my said kinswoman Amye all my goods and household stuff being in and about my dwelling house in Basingstoke aforesaid. Item I give unto Elizabeth the daughter of my said brother Daniell Smith one hundred pounds of lawful money of England to be paid unto her as soon as she shall accomplish her full age of twenty and five years, and if she, the said Elizabeth, shall fortune to depart this life before that her portion shall be due unto her by this my will, then I bequeath the same to Thomas Strangwitch the son of my said brother in law. Item I give and bequeath unto my servant Agnes Mowdye ten pounds of lawful money of England to be paid unto her within one year next after my decease.

Item I give and bequeath unto my executors hereafter named (vizt) Thomas South the elder my best Bible book, and to John Ailwyn and Thomas Weste of Basingstoke aforesaid and William Gwidott of Herriard gent., every of those last three five pounds apiece for their pains to be taken in seeing my debts and legacies paid. Item I give and bequeath unto my well beloved friends Richard Spier the younger and John Davies of Basingstoke aforesaid clothier, whom I make and ordain to be overseers of this my said last will and testament ten shillings apiece of lawful money of England for their pains to be aiding and assisting unto my said executors to see this my said last will and testament performed. Item I give and bequeath unto my kinswoman [missing] Turner now living at Slindon in the county of Sussex twenty shillings of lawful money of England per annum during her natural life to be paid her half yearly by equal portions and issuing out of all my lands and tenements in Basingstoke aforesaid.

The rest and residue of all and singular my goods, chattles and cattle my debts being first paid and the legacies in this my will performed I wholly give and bequeath to Thomas Strangwitch the son of my brother in law Thomas Strangwitch and the said Robert Smith the son of my said brother Daniell Smith deceased to be equally parted and divided between you share and share alike by the discretion of my said executors and overseers. Item I give and bequeath the messuages or tenements hereafter particularly mentiioned (viz) the messuages or tenements in the occupation of Richard Martyn and Richard Whittyer in Northbrook Street in Basingstoke aforesaid, the messuage or tenement in the occupation of Thomas West by the Church there, two messuages or tenements by Norden Field with the close in the occupation of Anthony Browne, two messuages or tenements in Church Street the one in the occupation of Thomas Machin and the other in the occupation of [missing] Parre, and the messuage or tenement in the occupation of the said Thomas Palmer in Basingstoke aforesaid with all backside, orchards, gardens and appurtenances to the said several messuages or tenements belonging or appertaining to the said Thomas Strangwitch, the son, for and during the term of his natural life. And after his decease, then to the heirs of the body of the said Thomas Strangwitch lawfully begotten or to be begotten. And for want of such issue, then to the use and behoof of the heirs of the body of the said Robert Smith lawfully begotten or to be begotten. And for want of such issue then to the use and behoof of the right heirs of me the said John Smith forever. And my will and meaning is, and I do so ordain, that if the said Thomas Strangwitch or his said heirs shall at any time after my decease attempt or go about to sell or do away with the said messuages or tenements or any of them before by me bequeathed to him or them and the same duly proved, that then the said messuages or tenements and premises (from and immediately after that the said Thomas Strangwitch his heirs or assigns shall so attempt or go about to sell or do away with them or any of them), shall wholly come and be to the heirs of the body of the said Robert Smith lawfully begotten or to be begotten. And for want of such issue to the right heirs of me the said John Smith forever. Item I give and bequeath the said messuage or tenement as I now live in in Northbrook Street aforesaid and all orchards, gardens, backsides, closes, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and one hundred acres of arable land (be it more or less) as the same do lie dispersedly in the common fields of or belonging to Basingstoke aforesaid, to the said Robert Smith for and during his natural life. And after his decease, then to the heirs of the body of the said Robert Smith lawfully begotten or to be begotten. And for want of such issue, then to the use and behoof of the heirs of the body of the said Thomas Strangwitch the son, lawfully begotten or to be begotten. And for want of such issue, then to the use and behoof of the right heirs of me the said John Smith forever. And my will and meaning is, and I do so ordain, that if the said Robert Smith or his said heirs shall at any time after my decease attempt or go about to sell or do away with the said messuage or tenement and premises before by me given or bequeathed to him or them, and the same duly proved, that then the said messuage or tenement and premises from and immediately after that the said Robert Smith his heirs or assigns shall so attempt or go about to sell or do away with the same shall wholly come and be to the heirs of the body of the said Thomas Strangwitch the son, lawfully begotten or to be begotten. And for want of such issue, to the right heirs of me the said John Smith forever.

And I do further ordain, that the said Robert Smith shall be put forth and apprenticed to some clothier and that a fund of money (out of the stock as shall be due unto him), be given unto him for his placing by the discretion of my said executors and overseers and that he, the said Robert Smith, shall receive, have or take no benefit by this my said will either of goods or chattels, cattle household stuff or of the rents or profits of the said messuage or tenement and premises before by me given or bequeathed unto him, before that he shall accomplish his full age of four and twenty years. And if he, the said Robert Smith, shall fortune to die or depart this life before that he shall accomplish the said full age of four and twenty years then I will that the parte and portion of goods and the rents, issues and profits of the said messuage or tenement and premises that should or might have come accrued or been due to him, the said Robert Smith, shall within six months next after the decease of the said Robert Smith be equally parted and distributed to and amongst my sisters and kindred above named or the survivors or survivor of them share and share alike. And further my will and meaning is that during and until the said Robert Smith shall so accomplish his said full age of four and twenty years my said executors shall have the full and whole administration and disposing of the goods, chattels and household stuff before by me given and bequeathed to him by this my said will and the receiving and taking up of the said rents, issues and profits of the said messuage or tenement and premises as till that time shall or may grow due thereout to the said

Robert Smith and shall render an account of the same and pay and deliver the same goods, chattels, household stuff, rents, issues and profits of the said messuage or tenement and premises when and as soon as he shall accomplish the said full age of four and twenty years .

And I will and desire my said executors and overseers once in every year yearly during and until the said Robert Smith shall so accomplish his said full age of four and twenty years to meet together on St Johns Day in Christian holy days at Basingstoke aforesaid, there to give and account either to other of such rents, issues and profits as they, or any of them, have received, had or taken out of, or by the said messuage or tenement and premises for the use and behoof of the said Robert Smith, and also of such payments as they, my said executors, have paid to such uses as is above declared unto whom for their pains there to be taken I give every such day ten shillings to make them a dinner.

Item I give and bequeath unto Thomas Strangwitch my said brother in law's son over and above the part and portion of goods and landes before my me bequeathed unto him one hundred pounds of lawful money of England to be paid unto him within two months next after my decease. And my will and meaning is, and I do so ordain that if at the time of my decease my stock of sheep, other cattle and corn and other grain whereof I shall die possessed of shall not be sufficient to satisfy and pay all my said debts and legacies, then I will that my said executors shall pay the remainder thereof out of the rents issues and profits of all my said messuages, lands, rents and hereditaments in Basingstoke aforesaid. And I do hereby revoke and disannul all former wills by me made. And I will that none of them shall stand in force but only this my will. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written:

This will consisting of eleven sheets of paper was read, signed, sealed, published and declared to be the last will and testament of the said John Smith and these words (fourteenth) in the first sheet, (two) and (two) and (five) in the second sheet, (the son) in the sixth sheet and (debts and) in the last sheet interlined before sealing in the presence of

Codicil:

The four and twentieth day of August AD 1638

Whereas I, John Smith of Basingstoke in the county of Southampton clothier, by my last will and testament in writing bearing date the seventh day of this instant month of August have given amongst other things four pounds yearly to eight poor people to be chosen by the lecturer, Vicar and four of the approved men of the said town of Basingstoke. I do hereby now declare that my will and meaning is that the said approved men shall be such as shall be burgesses of the said town for the time being whereof Thomas South and John Ailwyn, two of my executors hereafter named shall be two and the survivor of them one. Item whereas by my said will I have given and bequeathed unto my kinsfolk Robert Smith, Thomas Strangwitch and Amye the wife of George Edwards all my goods and household stuff in and about my dwelling house in Basingstoke aforesaid, and have afterwards by the same my said will given the rest and residue of all and singular my goods, chattels and cattle unto the said Thomas Strangwitch and Robert Smith to be equally parted and divided between them share and share alike as by my said will may appear. Now I do hereby revoke, annul and make void all and every the said legacies and gifts so by me given and bequeathed unto them and every of them, and I do hereby instead thereof give and bequeath unto the said Robert Smith my kinsman my best bed, bedding, goods and household stuff now and usually remaining and being in my parlour and in the hall of my dwelling house, and my furnace, vats and other goods in my dyehouse and also my best silver wine bowl and beer bowl, four silver spoons, two pairs of sheets, two tablecloths, a diaper tablecloth, a dozen and a half of diaper napkins. And also I give and bequeath unto the said Thomas Strangwitch my kinsman my best bed, bedstead and furniture thereto belonging in the chamber wherein I lie, a silver wine bowl, four silver spoons, a silver beer bowl, two pairs of sheets, two linen tablecloths, six Holland wrought napkins and four kerchiefs. And I give and bequeath unto the said Amye Edwards my kinswoman my other bed, bedstead and all thereto belonging in the said chamber wherein I now lie, a silver wine bowl, a dozen of silver spoons, two pairs of sheets, two tablecloths, three and twenty table napkins, four kerchiefs and two Holland aprons. And I give and bequeath the rest of my plate, pewter, and other my goods and household stuff (not formerly given) within my dwelling house to the said Robert Smith, Thomas Strangwitch and Amye Edwards to be equally divided amongst them by the discretion of my said executors or the major part of them. And my will is that if my kinswoman Elizabeth Smith shall be married and shall happen to die before that her portion be due her by my said will, then I will that the portion be paid to her husband and not to the said Thomas Strangwitch as in my will, and that she be put too service, and five pounds with her in placing her, and that there shall be added by my executors forty shillings yearly towards the apparelling of her till that her portion be due to her by my said will. And whereas in my said will there is set down a meeting day for meeting yearly on St Joh'ns Day in Christmas Holy Day, my will is that the meeting be by all my said executors and overseers or the major part of them, either on that or any other day of the year yearly as they, or the major part of them, shall think fit. And further my will and meaning is that all such charges and expenses in travelling and otherwise as my said executors, or any of them, shall disburse, lay forth or be put unto by reason of undertaking my executorship or concerning my estate, shall from time to time do fall by them and every of them and shall be allowed them upon their accounts to be made as by my said will is appointed. And my will is that my said executors shall pay fifty shillings to the children of Warham in full satisfaction of the monies which I owe them. And I do give and bequeath to my loving friend Mr Richard Spier the elder ten pounds current English money and to his daughter in law Agnes, the wife of Richard Spier the younger, eleven shillings of like money. Also I give and bequeath to John Ailwyn the before named, one of the said executors, my best pair of gloves. In witness whereof annexing this as a codicil to my said last will I have hereunto put my hand and seal the day and year [missing]
