

Marie Storer, widow of Buckminster, 1662

An Inventarie of all the goods and Chattles and debts w[hi]ch lately belonged unto Marie Storer of Buckminster in the County of Leicester widdow lately deceased As they were taken and praised by Thomas Moore gentleman John Tharpe and John Bartram praisers August the 13th Anno 1662

	£	s	d
Imprimis her purse and apparell	06	00	00
Item in the Hall a table fowre stooles two Chaires a forme and a settle two Carpettes and a table frame a racke and the glasscase	01	10	06
Item in the Parler a bedstedd two Cubbords an old Chest a featherbed two old Blanketts one boulster two pillowes and coverings	05	00	00
Item in the chamber over the Hall one bedstedd an old featherbedd one Boulster two pillowes two old blanketts, coveringe curtaines & vallences and a trundle bedd	02	10	00
One old Chest two boxes and fowre Chaires a Chaire table	00	14	00
Item in the Chamber over the Parler one high bedstedd with a feather bedd one boulster two pillowes two blanketts a Matrice a Coveringe curtaines two vallences a Cupboard two Chaires and one stoole and a round table. [Two little old Coffers (crossed through)]	03	10	00
Lininge three pairs of flaxen sheets three pairs of Holland Pillowebeeres two table Clothes a dosson and a halfe of Napkins two towells two Cupboardclothes	03	15	00
Pewter one Bason and Ewer two Candlesticks seaven pieces of pewter two old Chamberpotts	01	04	00
Brasse two old potts two panns and a scellett and old warmeinge pann	00	15	00
In the kitchene two fire irons two paire of Hooks drippenspan and Cobberds a fire shovel and tonge & spitt and other lumber	00	15	00
Item in the Brewhouse an old little lead two tubbs 4 little Barrells w[i]th other lumber	01	03	04
Sum tot[al]	26	16	10
Tho: Moore John Bartram John Tharpe

ROLLR, PR/I/57/51