

John Golde of Dummer, husbandman 1599

Ref: Hants. RO 1599AD/17

The inventory of all the goods and chattels of John Golde husbandman late of Dummer in the diocese of Winchester deceased appraised by Walter Madgweke yeoman, John Lover and John Carter the 17 day of April in year of Our Lord 1599.

	£	s	d
Imprimis 1 table, 1 cupboard and 3 joined stools	0	10	0
Item 1 brass pot, 4 posnets	0	13	4
Item a pair of andirons, 2 pair of pot hangers	0	2	6
Item 3 brass pans and a cauldron of brass	1	0	0
Item 2 kettles of brass and 20 pieces of pewter	1	3	4
Item 3 beds and 3 bedsteads, 3 bolsters, 3 pillows	2	0	0
Item 3 chests and 3 coverlets	2	0	0
Item 4 horses and two kine, 30 sheep, 10 lambs and a bullock	17	10	0
Item 1 cart, 1 plough and harness for cart and plough	1	13	4
Item 2 hogs and 3 shoots, 10 hens and a cock	1	0	0
Item 12 acres of wheat and 2 of vetches	6	10	0
Item 2 quarters wheat, 2 of barley, 4 bushels of oats	3	8	0
Item 1 trivet, 1 frying pan, 1 dripping pan, 3 pot hooks	0	2	6
Item linen sheets, tablecloths and other napery	1	0	0
Item 4 fitches of bacon and 2 silver spoons	0	16	0
Item a coat, jerkin, doublet and a pair of hose	0	13	4
Item 1 trow, 1 vat and other old lumber diverse parcels	1	0	0
Sum total	42	2	4

Walter Madgwyke

Item the said deceased John Gould owed to his son John Gould

20 0 0

These are to desire that the bearer hereof John Gold may have your furtherance to take a letter of administration for all the goods and chattels of his father John Gold latterly deceased at Dummer, whereof he has taken a true inventory, as it is here above written. This I have written to serve for him that he may be [missing] because he is but a stranger here, and is to go London [missing] where he dwells.

By me Philipp Kistell parson.