

William Heasall 1679

A true and perfect Inventorie of all the goods and Chattles that William Heasall of Sproxton in the Countie of Leicester Dyed seized & possessed of October the two an twentieth; 1979:

praised by: Thomas East Thomas Rose & Henry Hubbert

	£	—	s	—	d
Imprimis his purse & Apparell	07		0		0
Item in the hall the fire irons and two Tables five Cheeres and stooles and other nesessaries	02	—	0	—	0
Item in the parlor one bed and the furniture to it, and one Round table one Chist and other nessessaries	07	—	10	—	0
Item in the Kiching Derye and Buttery; puter and Brasse bruing vessell and Barolls and other nessessaries	11	—	10	—	0
Item in the Chamber two beds and there furniture with other beding and one Table foure Cheeres and five chists and the rest of the furniture thereunto belonging	13	—	7	—	0
It[em] in the store Chamber for bacon and Cheese and other nesessaries there	02	—	0	—	0
It[em] for Linings and some other things	06	—	15	—	0
It[em] for wool and yarne	06	—	0	—	0
It[em] for horses and mares	44	—	0	—	0
It[em] for bease	38	—	0	—	0
It[em] for sheepe	21	—	0	—	0
It[em] for the Swine	03	—	4	—	0
It[em] for the pullin	01	—	5	—	6
It[em] for the Bees	00	—	10	—	6
It[em] for the Graine and heay	43	—	6	—	0
It[em] for the Carts and Cartgeeres; plow & plowgeers and other instruments of husbandrye	06	—	0	—	0
It[em] for foldtrayes and sheepe cribs & other offell wood	01	—	0	—	0
It[em] for one Iron barr forkes and sakes and other materials	01	—	0	—	6
It[em] two bonds	21	—	15	—	0
It[em] Monies owing	01	—	5	—	0
It[em] for all things unseene and omitted	00	—	2	—	6
	£		s		d
The Total Some is	238	—	1	—	0

Hen[ry] Hubbert
Thomas East
Tho[mas] Rose

LLRRO:PR/1/81/112

NB Offell/offal means short offcuts of wood for burning

Total should read 238 - 11 - 0

