

William Howless/Howleys of Dummer, 1517

Ref: Hants. RO 1517B/18

This document has been translated from Latin.

In the name of God Amen 25th day of the month of April 1517 I William Howleys of Dummer compos mentis and of sound memory do make my testament in this manner. Firstly I give my soul to Almighty God, my body to be buried in the cemetery of All Saints parish church at Dummer. Likewise I give to the mother church 12d. Likewise I give to the church of Dummer 6s. 8d. Likewise I give to the church at Farleigh Wallop 12d. Likewise I give to the church at Nutley 12d. Likewise I give the chapel at Woodmancott 12d. Likewise I give the chapel of Popham 12d. Likewise I give the church at North Waltham 12d. Likewise I give to all my grandsons and granddaughters to each of them 4d. Likewise I give to my son John £6 13s. 4d. good and legal money. Likewise I give to my son Richard 40s. Likewise I give to my daughter Anne 40s. Likewise I give to my daughter Alice 40s. Likewise I give to my daughter Amy £3 6s. 8d. good and legal money with her apparatus for her nuptials. Likewise I give to my daughter Agnes 40s. Likewise I give to the parochial church of Dummer my new house recently built. The residue of my goods in the place of Dummer not bequeathed, I give and bequeath to Alice my wife whom I ordain, constitute and make my true executrix that she may dispose for the good of my soul as it seems to her best. As my supervisor I appoint, ordain and make Mr Robert Wallop and he should have for his work 10s. In witness of which testament were Thomas Halle, James Styntt, Philipp Grante.