

Glebe terrier, 1601

A true and Just terrye of all the bayes of building and of the gleabe lands belonging and appartay[n]ing to the vicarage of Ashbie magna. Taken the xvi day of Febye An[n]o D[o]m[ini] 1601 by Thomas Mason vicar there and William Bradfeild and John Clowes Churchwardens

Imp[ri]mis all the bayes of building belonging to the mansion house of the said vicarage and of the barnes, stables, and other houses be in number about xiiij bayes

Item one little close or croft adioynynge to the church yard, contayninge in measure thre rodds and foure things better master Broxesby lyinge on the South sid

Item all the gleabe is conted one yardland and it hath in arable ground about xviiij akars lyinge on a furlong of ground called by the name of Cowakars, butting east into willowbye meare, or broke, master Broxesbye lying on the South side

Item all the meadow ground &c the west and the balkes, contayne in measure about xxiiij akars one rod, called the holme and the holme leese butting east, and partly north east into willowby meare near unto the ford, master Broxesby lying on the west sid

Item that the whole [section obscured by fold in paper] of all the gleab land belonging to the said vicarage of Ashby Magna over and beside the whomstead, the churchyard and the close is 41 akars one rod

There is moreover belonging to the said vicarage all the fures or gose onelye, none standynge and growynge, or that pere after shall stand and grow upon x leese lying in a peece of ground called by the name of the walke buttinge upon M[aste]r Bradgate his heath M[aste]r Broxsby on both sides both here & els where for that he is the lord of the whole field

By me Thomas Mason vicar

William Bradfeild	}	Churchwardens
John Clows	}

Lincs. RO: DIOC/TER BUNDLE/LEICS/ASHBY MAGNA, 1601