

Probate Inventory John Dalbey Castle Donington 1667

A True and perfect Inventory indented of all the goods and Chattells and Cattells of John Dalbey the elder of Castle Donington in the County of Leiecester yeoman Deceased made and taken truly and Indiferently prized by us John Dalbey the you{nger} and Fran Thomasinan and Edward Dalbey the seventeene day of November Anno Dom[ini] 1667 as Followeth

Imprimis in the hall 2 tables and one Cuberd with drawers	2	13	00
Item 5 Cheares and Stoolls and Fire Irons	1	10	00
In the parlour
Item one table and Carpet and one seeled bed with all things there unto belonging and one livery Cuberd and Cuberd Cloth and 6 red Lether Chaires and one Greene Couch Chaire and 2 seeled presses and 4 buffet stools and Fire Irons	16	00	00
In the new Chamber
Item 2 seeled beds with all things there unto belonging and one great Chist and one round table and one Chist of Lininge and 2 Custions	13	00	00
In the ould Chamber
Item one seeled bed with all things there unto belonging and one Cunaby bed with all things there unto belonging and one trundle bed with all things there unto belonging and one Chist with books and one other Chist with sum small plate in it and 2 trunks	13	13	00
In the ould parlour
Item one table and one Cubord and one Chist and one wealing wheels and 3 lininge wheels and sum other ould things beside	2	01	00
In the buttery
Item 5 barills and 3 shealvs with sum other ould things	1	16	00
In the kitchen
Item one table and one dresser and shelves with putter and brase and one Lead and one paire of querns and Fire Irons and 5 peals and 2 Chorngs 2 paire of racks and 3 spits and 2 potts	9	10	00
In the kitchin chamber
Item one trundle bed and sum other ould things	1	10	00
Item 3 maires	14	00	00
Item Fifty and one Sheepe	10	4	00
Item his purse and apparel and all other things forgotten and unseen	24	00	00
Sum totall	109	7	00
Fran Thomasinan
Edward Dalbie
John Dalby

ROLLR/PRI/69/34