For particulars apply to A.L.Potter Newcastle upon Tyne or to Mr. Thompson, Solicitor,
Bishopwearmouth. Newcastle December 28th 1810.

To The Coal Owners Of Hartley, Blyth And Cowpen.

Gentlemen,

When in my advertisement of the 6th inst. I requested the coal owners of the Wear to call a meeting at Chester-le-Street on the 20th I did conceive that I could not with Propriety extend that request beyond the limits of the County of Durham; but as it has since been intimated to me that any regulations on the Wear might materially affect the inhabitants of the Owners on the Tyne and also of Hartley, Blyth and Cowpen and that a general meeting of the Trade would therefore be the most expedient and desirable for all parties; I now beg leave to propose that such a meeting, for the purpose specified may now be held at the same place on the morning of the 3rd of January, and that two men of such collieries as may wish to be present be allowed to attend. In justification of myself, I think it proper to observe that had I not possessed other means of information than what my own knowledge of the coal trade could supply, I should not have presumed to have offered to you any regulations whatever; but that with such aid I continue to indulge the hope that those I have prepared may be productive of that mutual good which it has been my intention to establish between you and your workmen; and by the adoption of which I humbly conceive the public peace may in future be less liable to interruption.

I have the honour to remain, gentlemen, your most obedient humble servant,

Brancepeth Rectory Dec. 25th 1810.

William Nesfield.

TUESDAY 15th JANUARY 1811.

To the Editor

Sir.- The public being already acquainted with the motives which induced me to attempt a Reconciliation between the Coal owners and their Pitmen, I now think it my duty to lay before them the result of the meeting which took place at Chester le Street on the 3rd instant, in order that it may be generally understood on what grounds my view and expectations on this subject have, for the present at least, been frustrated.- I am not aware, that I can do better than by publishing the regulations I had the honour to propose to that meeting, and subjoining the respective answers I then received from both parties. I must however observe, that my disappointment on that occasion chiefly arose from the circumstance of the pitmen having objected to the Binding in April, notwithstanding they had previously agreed to that Period; and that the coalowners having acceded to the whole of the Regulations proposed for the reason they have assigned, does them much credit.

I remain, Sir ,

Your most obedient humble servant,

William Nesfield.

Brancepeth Rectory, January 10th 1811.

PROPOSALS.

For regulating the contracts between the coalowners and their pitmen on the Rivers Tyne and Wear, and of Hartley, Blyth, and Cowpen, submitted to their consideration at a special meeting, held at Chester le Street, on Thursday the 3rd day of January, 1811, by the Rev. Wm. Nesfield, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Durham.

That the future Bindings of every colliery shall commence on the 5th April in every year, for the term of 12 months; and that the principal agent of every colliery shall give their men 14 days previous notice of such Bindings.

That the Binding, which shall take place at the Expiration of the present Bonds, shall extend to the 5th April next, or to the 5th of April 1812, at the option of the pitmen; and that each Individual employed in every colliery shall, as has been customary, receive in the first Case  $\frac{1}{4}$  of a year's binding money, and in the latter Case one Year and one Quarter's Binding money, and in the latter case one Year and one Quarter's Binding money –such Binding money being in both cases estimated at the same Rate as last Year.

That a Condition book (which shall be subject to the Inspection of a Magistrate when required) shall be kept at every Colliery and that the principal Agent of the same shall enter into the said book all such Conditions of the Binding of every Pitman and his Family, as are not contained in the Bond; and that a Copy of each Man's Conditions shall at the Time of Binding, be given him, signed by the principal Agent; and that a Clause shall be inserted in the Bond, by which to legalize the Claims of every Pitman to the due Performance of the Terms specified in such Condition book.

That a single Copy of the Bond shall be given by the principal Agent of every Colliery to such Individual of the men as they themselves shall appoint, within fourteen Days from the Date thereof.

That if a Pitman be made subject to any Forfeiture for such Days as he lays himself idle, (except in Cases of Sickness) he shall be paid at the same Rate for such Days as he is laid idle by any Agent, or by the Owner of the Colliery to which he belongs except on Pay Saturdays, or at the Christmas Holidays, which shall not exceed ten Days, and in the Cases provided for by the 7th Regulation.

That all the Forfeitures to which the men may be liable, shall be demanded on the first Pay-Day after they shall have been incurred; and the same shall also be deducted from the wages due on such Pay-Day, if sufficient to discharge them,- but if insufficient, they shall be deducted from the wages at every subsequent Pay-Day, by such Instalments as the Master or principal Agent in his Discretion shall think proper; and so on until the whole of such Forfeitures are fully paid. But if a Forfeiture shall not be fully demanded at the next Pay Day after incurred, or shall have been once executed or abandoned, it shall not afterwards be revived or enforced.

That if by any accident to the Engine, or otherwise, a Pit shall be rendered unfit for working, and the Men and boys be thereby laid idle for more than three successive days, 2s 6d per day shall be thereafter paid to the Men and 1s per day to the Boys, on condition that every such Man shall work at any other Labour in which it shall be convenient for the Master to employ them; but if the Master shall be unable to provide them with any other work, and shall give them Liberty to seek it elsewhere, and they refusing to avail themselves of such Liberty, shall be unwilling to work at such employment, when the Agent can prove it might be obtained-then the daily payment shall be 1s 6d to the Men, an 9d to the Boys; and in case they are fully employed in any other Colliery, this Payment shall entirely cease.

That a Tub, being the standard measure of the Corf, shall be kept at the mouth of each Pit, for measuring the set-out Corves, and every Corf deficient in measurement be turned out and forfeited, but no other penalty shall be incurred; but to prevent as much as possible the measuring of any set out Corf, except in the presence of the Hewer who sets it to bank, two Hours from the setting it out shall be allowed him in which to attend the admeasurement; but that at the Expiration of the said two Hours, or whenever the Number of set out Corves shall at one Time amount to eight, the Bankman shall proceed to measure and decide upon them, whether any Hewer be present or not.

That in case any Corf is laid out, the Pitman who sends it to bank shall be liable for a Fine of Threepence for every Quart of foul Coal, Splint or Stone,- but for the quantity of clean coal remaining in such Corf, he shall be paid at the then working price; but in case the Quantity of foul Coal, Splint or Stone shall exceed four Quarts in such Corf, the Hewer thereof shall be liable to be dealt with as guilty of a wilful Misdemeanour and be subject to such penalty as the Law may inflict, exclusive of the aforesaid Forfeiture.

That all future Binding money (except as specified in the second Regulation) as well as the amount of Smart Money, shall be agreed for by the Agents and Men of every Colliery, as has hitherto been the Practice.

That for the Greater satisfaction of all parties, an able Barrister at Law, who is unconnected with the Coal Trade, and has no interest therein, shall be employed to prepare the Form of such a Bond, as shall give to both the Coalowners and their men the utmost Security for the reciprocal Performance of their respective Engagements.

That in Case any Dispute shall arise upon any point which is nor provided for in these Regulations, or which is not specified in the Bond, the Matters in Difference shall be referred in the usual Way to Viewers and their Umpire, who shall be chosen in the same manner as has been customary on such Occasions; and that the Decisions of such Viewers or their Umpire, in all cases so referred to them, shall be final and conclusive between the Parties.

Wm Nesfield.

Brancepeth Rectory, January 1st 1811.

Chester le Street, 3rd January 1811

The Deputation of Coalowners have perused Mr. Nesfield's proposed Regulations of this Day for the ensuing binding of the Pitmen; and although there are some points which do not entirely meet their Approval, yet the principal Heads are so far approved as to lead them to acquiesce in the whole; which they trust will effect the desirable purpose of obviating all future Misunderstanding with the Workmen.

An Answer to the Proposals submitted to the Consideration of the Pitmen at Chester le Street, January 3rd, 1811, by the Rev. William Nesfield.

1st,- Rejected;the Majority being for October

SUNDERLAND THEATRE

(The important details with which our columns have been lately filled have hitherto prevented our making any room for theatrical observations. In order, however, to gratify our numerous readers in Sunderland we insert the following short article which has been forwarded from that place).

Sunderland January 31st 1811

On Tuesday evening the comedy of the World was performed here, for the benefit of Mr. Bannister who was exceedingly great in the part of Echo, as was also Mr. Faulkner in that of Cheviot. Mr. H. Kemble's Dauntless and Mr. Lombe's Loiter, are exceedingly ridiculous; Bond Street loungers have not their handkerchiefs hanging out of their pockets like a tavern waiter. Mr Lancaster's Index was very good; indeed this performer is always entertaining, although sometimes too ludicrous. Mr Holmes was very respectable as Withers. The rest of the characters were miserable; and without exception the worst possible females were in this company. Mrs. Grove is a very excellent Old Maid, but Mrs. Darley would have personated the Gay Widow, Mrs. Bloomfield, much better. Mr. Bannister gave a selection from his budget, with afterwards Sylvester Daggerwood, in all which he met with the most unbounded applause from a 65L house. Mr. Grove was very fair as Fustian, and is certainly a useful performer; but if the managers study their own interest they will engage an actress to succeed Mrs. Dalton, whose loss is very much felt indeed.

TUESDAY 12th FEBRUARY 1811

ANNIVERSARY of BURNS

On 29th January last, a number of respectable gentlemen of Sunderland, Bishopwearmouth etc. who are admirers of the Scottish Poet, Robert Burns, held their annual meeting for the purpose of commemorating the birthday of that celebrated son of Parnassus. Immediately after the President had explained the motives of their meeting together, of which everyone seemed in a most lively manner to anticipate, one of the company rose and addressed the surrounding gentlemen to the following effusion, as tributary to the memory of their esteemed bard.

A Monody, written and set to music for the occasion was then sung; after which several of his most admired poems were recited, appropriate toasts, selected out of his works, given, and it is perhaps rarely to be found when an evening has been spent with such general heart-felt satisfaction.

TUESDAY 19th FEBRUARY 1811

Yesterday the East Yorkshire Militia arrived here from Sunderland on their route to Scotland. The Durham Militia have received a route to Scotland and are to march on Thursday next from Sunderland barracks.

On Monday 11th inst. was held at the Marine Tavern Sunderland the 5th anniversary meeting of the members of the Sympathetic Society, when a large and respectable company attended, who dined and spent the evening with that universal harmony and satisfaction which is the true characteristic of benevolent minds.

TUESDAY 5th MARCH 1811

On Saturday se'nnight three publicans of Sunderland were fined 10s each for allowing people to drink in their houses during divine service; and five persons who were found in a state of intoxication were fine each 3s 4d. Four boys were also confined in the cage having been caught playing pitch halfpenny on the Sunday forenoon.

On Friday se'nnight, John Cooper and John Unthank, dealers in marine stores, were fined by the magistrates at Sunderland in the mitigated penalty of £10 each for having in their possession a quantity of ships stores which they had purchased of some boys, who had stolen them from different ships in the harbour, without having the same entered in a book as required by the Act. And Mr. William Bell, coalfitter, has paid £5 to the Sunderland Dispensary being one half of the fine imposed on John Cooper as above which he was entitled to as informer.

The particulars of the Concert will be given in due time.

Princes Street Newcastle upon Tyne, April 22nd 1811.

Newcastle and Sunderland Trader

Merchants and others who have heavy goods to convey between Newcastle upon Tyne and Sunderland are respectfully informed that the sloop Sandwich, John Ogilvie Master, has commenced and is intended to continue a regular trader between the two ports. The freight in most cases will not much exceed half of the charge by land carriage; and as the sloop generally performs the round in ten days, the saving this will be to the public when goods are not in immediate want of, is obvious. The risk particularly in the summer, is trifling being seldom being more than an hour and a half at sea.

For freight apply at Mr Lee's office at Sunderland; of Plummer and Blackbird Newcastle upon Tyne or to the Master on board- Sunderland April 20th 1811.

TUESDAY 9th JULY 1811

There never, perhaps, was a greater stagnation of trade in the towns of North and South Shields and Sunderland than at present owing to the detention of shipping from the south by contrary winds. These harbours are almost without a vessel and numerous bodies of men are eating up the earnings of their future industry. The publicans even complain of seldom seeing the king's coin. We hope a favourable wind will speedily fill both places with wealth and employment.

TUESDAY 23rd JULY 1811.

Conveyance of merchandise and passengers to and from Sunderland and London, by Sea.
The Sunderland Shipping Company respectfully inform the public that it is their intention to employ Vessels regularly in the above trade. The Sunderland packet built expressly for this purpose is now on her first Voyage and others will be provided as the Occasion requires.
The Difficulty of Procuring a Conveyance to London for the Manufactures on the Wear and in the Neighbourhood has frequently been grievously(sic) felt. It is hoped this Establishment if properly encouraged will obviate this difficulty. The Freight is intended to be regulated by what is paid at Newcastle upon Tyne. Goods from the Country are requested to be sent to the care of J.Phillips, Thornhill's Wharf; and further information may be obtained of Mr. W. Walton, Grocer, Sunderland.

The Sunderland Harriers will throw off on Tuesday January 7th at Grindon, Thursday 9th at Seaton and Saturday 11th at West Herrington; at 10 o'clock each morning. The fine open weather which has hitherto distinguished the winter has afforded the lovers of the chase frequent opportunities of enjoying their favourite amusement; and perhaps no party of sportsmen have enjoyed more diversion than those who have been fortunate to hunt with the Earl of Darlington, in Yorkshire. Almost every day on which his lordship has taken out his hounds, has been marked by some good run; and on Tuesday se'nnight the Raby Hunt were gratified by a brilliant day's sport from the favourite Gorse cover "Greystones". The hounds had been scarcely thrown into cover, before a fox broke away. He first went past Heighington, then to the left by Walworth Bar, over by Mr. Hopper's plantations, down to Limekiln Banks, straight to Debenson's Whin, where, distaining the earhts, he flew past Killerby, Headlam, and Fanny Banks, down to Snow Hill, there lying on a steep bank of the Tees, the hounds overshot him and crossed the river; they were then hallooed back, the fox making his retreat in the same direction as he came.

TARN's

General Commission Sale Rooms and Auction Mart

Adjoining the Methodist Chapel, Bishopwearmouth

Wm Tarn, Auctioneer, Appraiser and Commission Broker, begs leave to return his most sincere thanks to the public, for favours conferred upon him since he dropped all connexion with Robert Davison; and informs them he carries on the concern wholly by himself, for which purpose he has taken a much more convenient situation adjoining the Methodist Chapel, where Estates, Houses, Ships, Plate Jewellery, Books, Pictures, Prints, Merchandise of every description, Farming Stock, Pawnbrokers's goods &c &c will be sold by Auction on Commission as above, in any part of the Kingdom.

Wm Tarn hopes his knowledge of Pictures, Prints, &c will be found to be of great use to those who may have such Articles to dispose of, as there is no calculating the loss that actually arises to Families and Creditors, from the seller being totally ignorant of these things. W.T. flatters himself that the Business will be conducted with such liberality, punctuality, and dispatch, as will ensure the further favours of his Employers, as the same liberal plan will be adhered to in every respect, as mentioned in the advertisements of the partnership.

N.B. Since Davison made a seasonable discovery of the prudence and expediency of setting Tarn adrift, he has now from his friends and the public the most striking proofs of their approbation, to sell by commission, Goods and Estates by private contract or public auction, at his several Mart Rooms. This is better than puffing or making public acknowledgements for favours never received which can answer no other purpose than to deceive the public and obtain false credit. The two last sales Tarn had were both engaged for when the firm was Davison and Tarn, and he had the consummate impudence to direct that all letters were to be sent to himself. Tarn puts me in mind of old hack horses, they go best in company.

Dr. Fuller's eldest son having lately returned from the College of Edinburgh, and is to act with his father as his assistant in the practice of Surgery and in the dispensing of medicine, the Doctor considers it proper respectfully to acquaint the public that on account of the assistance he hopes to derive from his son, he has resolved to exact no fees in the future for his attendance on his patients in any case where he dispenses his own medicine. In fact, he means to attend his patients on the same terms that other Surgeons in this place do.

At the same time it may be proper to add, that as Dr. Fuller finds it is still not generally known that he formerly practised as a Surgeon, he feels it incumbent upon him here to state that he practised Surgery and Midwifery to a great extent and with singular success for upwards of 30 years among a wide and genteel circle of employers in Berwick and Berwickshire, and continues to act in both these capacities.

Dr. Fuller and son will inoculate the Children of the Poor for the Cow Pox at their own houses GRATIS.

SUNDERLAND.

We have frequently had occasion to notice the growing importance of this valuable sea-port, and as we always find a peculiar degree of pleasure in recording anything relative to the improvement of the town, we readily give a place to the following:-'on Monday 10th inst. the chief cornerstone of the intended Exchange, Town Hall &etc was laid with masonic honours, by the Provincial Grand Lodge for the County of Durham, attended by several brethren of the neighbouring lodges, Sir Henry Vane Tempest Bart. (in the absence of Sir R. Milbanke Bart.) Provincial Grand Master protempore. The procession went from the Phoenix Hall, through Church Street to the site of the building, preceded by the Sunderland Volunteer Infantry commanded by Lt. Col. Robinson, the gentlemen of the building committee, and others interested in the prosperity of the port and town, and was followed by the Volunteer Artillery commanded by Lt. Col. Markham, their respective band and that of the Forfarshire Militia, playing masonic and martial airs. The procession having reached the place where the stone was to be laid, the whole halted and the Grand Masonic officers and brethren, according to seniority, proceeded through the line uncovered, the Volunteers presenting arms. After the usual ceremonies had taken place the Provincial Grand chaplain delivered an appropriate oration which was greatly admired for its elegance. The Volunteers then fired three volleys in the air which was afterwards rent by cheers from an immense concourse of spectators. The procession then returned to the Phoenix hall where the following officers were appointed grand officers for the year ensuing :-

Cuthbert Sharp esq.	S and W
Thomas Wilson esq.	J and W
Brother W. Spence	No. 44 Swalwell
T. Robinson	191 Sunderland
P.Smith	12 ditto
J.Robson	166 Durham
M. Hippo	166 Durham
R.Spenser	295 Gateshead
G.Potts	343 S.Shields

At 3 o'clock the brethren, gentlemen of the committee and others to the Number of 200 sat down to an excellent dinner in the Phoenix Hall provided by brother Kay of the Golden Lion. Sir H.V.Tempest presided and festive harmony prevailed to a late hour.

INSCRIPTION ON THE PLATE

The foundation stone of this building, intended to comprise an Exchange, Town Hall, Coffee House, Auction Mart, erected by several inhabitants of Sunderland and its Vicinity, holding shares of £50 each was laid on 10th August 1812, in the 2nd year of the reign of George III, by the Provincial Grand Master of Ireland, assorted masons, George Prince Regent, grand master, Sir Ralph Milbanke MP, PGM, and Sir Henry Vane Tempest MP, PGM protom. Alexander Logan esq. DPGM, Thomas Chipchase esq. Mayor of Durham, SGW, Cuthbert Sharp esq., JGW, Thomas Wilson, engineer, WM of the Phoenix Lodge and Thomas ? and WM of the Sea Captain's Lodge, Sunderland, William Stokoe, architect, and the building committee, the Rev. J. Hampson AM, Rev. R. Gray DD ,G. Robinson esq., Addison Fenwick, Thomas Robson, William Walton, Thomas Wilson, John Davison, Thomas Young, Richard Markham, Berard Ogden, William Haddock, Thomas Collin, Secretary.

On this occasion Sir HV Tempest bart. with his accustomed liberality, presented the volunteer corps, the workmen employed and the bell-ringers of Wearmouth and Sunderland churches with £25 , also £5 to the unfortunate widow and son in coming over the bar on Wednesday se'night.

OFFENCE EXTRAORDINARY. We understand that the manner in which the marriage of Lieutenant S.G. Carter to Miss Browne was announced in the Mercury has given so much offence to a certain bookseller of Sunderland that he has refused to accept any orders for this paper. It is long ago since we were aware that the favors of Mrs. Clarke were extensive, but ‘till the above occurrence, we never suspected that her influence extended so far north as Sunderland. Perhaps the stationary for her famous mansion in Rathbone Place was furnished by the gentleman alluded to; and as he is one of the lovers of the “good things of this world”, the profits arising from such a dashing customer may have made an indelible impression on his delicate feelings. With respect to ourselves it is a matter of the most perfect indifference whether the gentleman grants or withdraws his favors; for we are certain that our present circulation in the spirited town of Sunderland (200 weekly) would not be much improved by so squeamish an agent. He will remember, however, to be on his guard; for should his negative delicacy for business ever prompt him to exercise a positive influence to our prejudice, he shall certainly receive a doze of Mercury that will be very difficult of digestion.

Sunderland and Bishopwearmouth Soup Kitchens &etc &etc. Assembly Rooms 17th December 1812.

At a meeting of the magistrates, gentlemen and principal inhabitants of Sunderland and Bishopwearmouth, convened by public advertisement, to consider of the propriety of the establishment of soup kitchens, &etc for the relief of the poor during the present winter, The Rev. J. Hampson, in the chair.

It was resolved

1st. That a liberal subscription be entered into immediately for the purpose of relieving the distress of the industrious and labouring poor during the present exigency

2nd. That the money collected shall be expended in the establishment of soup kitchens and to provide nutritious food, to be sold at reduced prices in such economical a manner as shall be judged best

3rd. That one fourth of the sum subscribed shall be expended on the poor of Bishopwearmouth, and 3/4 on those of Sunderland.

4th. That it is to be recommended to the parish officers, to give an extra relief to their poor by distributing soup gratuitously, at least one day in every week during the winter.

5th. That the following gentlemen be a committee for the general purpose of this charity, viz.- Rev.Dr. Grey, J.Hampson, G.Stephenson, W. Ettrick, G. Robinson, Thomas Cooke, R. Webster, Thomas Hooper, Christopher Branwell, Jacob Maud esqrs.

Thomas Harrison, Thomas Satchwell, William Beckwith, George Binns, William Bell (fitter), William Robson, George Wheatley, William Kirk, Joseph Morton, B.Bray, W. Walton, Sol. Chapman and Thomas Richardson, Jun.

6th. That Mr C. Wilson be Treasurer, and Messrs. R. Markham and Thomas Robson be joint Secretaries.

7th. That subscription lists be left at the Banks, Coffee Rooms and Library.

8th. That a copy of these resolutions, with a list of the subscribers be publishe in the Newcastle Courant and Tyne Mercury.

(signed) J. Hampson, chairman.

Resolved that the thanks of this meeting be given to the Rev. J. Hampson for his conduct in the chair.
