

Joan Farley of Bosbury, widow, 1605

Joan Farley of Bosbury, widow, 1605

Ref: Herefs. RO 8/2/17

In the name of God Amen the 7th day of December in the year of Our Lord God 1604. Joan Farley of the parish of Bosbury and diocese of Hereford widow, being sick in body but of sound and perfect remembrance, made this her last will and testament in manner and form following. Imprimis she gave and bequeathed her soul to Almighty God and her body to be buried in Christian burial. Item she gave ^{and bequeathed} all her goods, cattles, and chattels, movable and immovable, to Elizabeth Farley, and Joan Pitt, her daughters, to be equally divided betwixt them. And she did also constitute and appoint the said Elizabeth Farley, and Joan Pitt her lawful executrixes to see this her last will and testament in all respects performed. Witnesses hereof John Farley, Griffith Bowen

Proved 12 December 1605