

George Morris the elder, 1635

A true and perfect Inventorye of all the goods cattells and chattels of George Morris the elder of Frisbye sup[er] wreake deceased the twenty sixt day of November, prized by Richard Steele, and William Morris An[n]o D[omi]ni 1635

Inprimis his purse and apparell	$\dot{\text{ij}}^{\text{Li}} - \text{vj}^{\text{s}}$
Item in the house the Table, Cupheard, and other implem[en]ts	$0 - \text{x}^{\text{s}} . 0$
Item in the Parlour, tow bedstedds, tow coffers, and a chest, w[i]th other implem[en]ts	$0 - \text{xj}^{\text{s}} . 0$
Ite sixe sheetes one couerlett foure blanketts, w[i]th the rest of the beddinge	$\dot{\text{j}}^{\text{Li}} - \text{vj}^{\text{s}} - \text{vii}^{\text{d}}$
Item brasse & pewter	$0 - \text{vii}^{\text{s}} . 0$
Item boards, wood and a Leather	$\dot{\text{j}}^{\text{Li}} - 0 - 0$
Item Coales	$0 . \text{ii}^{\text{s}} . \text{iii}^{\text{d}}$
Item all the Corne in his barne and vpon the ground	vi^{Li}
Item all his hey	x^{s}
Item tow Kine	$\text{iii}^{\text{Li}} . \text{x}^{\text{s}}$
Item moneys owinge him vpon Bonds	xiii^{Li}
Item Mault	x^{s}
Su[m]ma totalis	$31^{\text{Li}} 15^{\text{s}}$

Peter Gamble min

Richard Steele

William Morris

LLRRO: PR/I/37/211