

Agnes Nashe of Nately Scures, widow, 1634

Ref: Hants. RO 1634A/51

In the name of God Amen, I Agnis Nashe of Hook in the parish of Nately Scures in the county of Southampton widow, being sick in body but sound in mind, God be thanked, do make my last will and testament in manner and form following. First I bequeath my soul into the hands of Almighty God my creator and redeemer and to Jesus Christ his Son by whose death I trust to have free remission of all my sins. And my body to be buried in the churchyard of Nately Scures.

Imprimis I give to Dannell Scotte my son and heir one silting or powdering trough with a cover and to his son Joseph Scotte two shillings six pence, and to Marie Scotte one shilling, and to his youngest daughter Janne Scotte one shilling.

Item to Agnis Robinsune of Reading my eldest daughter, I give twenty shillings paying to Ann Robinsunne her daughter out of it two shillings six pence, and her daughter Marie Robinsunne one shilling, and her son Richard enforcing.

Item I give to my daughter Ann Appeltunne twenty shillings and one warming pan of brass.

Item I give to Jane Stocker of Reading, my daughter, twenty shillings.

Item I give to William Smith, son to Nicholas Smith deceased, one shilling.

All the rest of my goods not given nor bequeathed, my legacies being paid and burial discharged I give and bequeath to my two youngest daughters Bridget and Allis Scotte, my legacies performed, whom I make my joint executrixes of this my last will and testament to be equally divided betwixt them by my two overseers. And I appoint my brother William Smith of Mapledurwell and John Russell of Newnham my overseers and for their pains I give them twelve pence apiece. In witness whereof I have set to my hand and seal the seventeenth of March one thousand six hundred twenty and thirteen.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of us.

John Goodchild, Richard Robinsonne,
Daniell Scot
