

John Ward, yeoman, Queniborough, 1670

An Inventory of the goods Cattells and Chattels of John Ward of Queniborow in the Counties of Leicester yeoman Lately Deceased taken and prized the Last day of January in the yeare of o[u]r Lord Christ One Thousand six hundred sixtie and nine by us whose names are under subscribed

	£	s	d
Imp[re]mis his purse and apparrell	1	0	0
It[e]m in the house one Cubberd one pen two Cheeres one little table one bench one forme one Racke Iron one Land Iron one paire on tonges and some small pott hookes		13	4
It[e]m in the parrler two testerbeds one boarded bed one Chest two Coffers one feather bed two Matris foure blanquits two Coverlids one boulster two pillows three paire of sheetes	4	2	6
It[e]m in the Chamber over the house one Coffe		1	6
It[e]m the boarded Chamber over the parrler one wooden garner		12	0
It[e]m the pewter and the brasse	1	15	0
It[e]m foure sheepe		16	0
It[e]m the barley & pease		7	0
It[e]m Oweing upon bond which will not bee all due untill the yeare of our Lord Christ one Thousand six hundred and Eightye	70	0	0
It[e]m one Tub one Cimdell one peale and all other things vnseene and forgotten		5	6
Summat Total[is]	79	12	10

Thomas Lacer his marke
Richard Sarson his marke
Thomas Marston
ROLLR, PR/I/69/184