

Oliver Walloppe of Farleigh Wallop, Knight, 1566

Ref: Hants. 21M65/D2/18

In the name of God Amen the fifteenth day of September in the year of our Lord God a thousand five hundred three score and four and in the sixth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Elizabeth by the grace of God Queen of England, France and Ireland, defender of the faith etc., I Oliver Walloppe knight, being of whole mind and perfect memory and in bodily health considering the vanity of this world and the sudden changing of man out of this transitory world and nothing to be more certain then death and the time thereof to be uncertain do therefore deliberately and advisedly ordain and make this my testament and last will in manner and form following. First I revoke and annul by these present all other my former testaments, wills and legacies made before the date hereof and I declare the same testaments, wills and legacies to be void and of none effect. And then above all worldly things I give and bequeath my soul unto Almighty God my only maker, redeemer and saviour in whom is my only trust and my body to be buried in the parish church of Farleigh Mortimer.

Item I give to Henry Walloppe my son all my lands and manors with the appurtenances to them belonging and to the heirs males of his body lawfully begotten of Morebath in Devonshire and Burye Barleth in Somersetshire for the performance of my legacies whom I ordain and make my sole and only executor of this my last will and testament. And also I give and bequeath to my son William Walloppe the elder during his natural life all my farm house and lands with all barns and stabiles, underwoods and all other housing belonging to the same farm lying and sitting in West Wilde in the parish of Este Wilde now being in the tenure and occupying of John Hannington, and after the death of my foresaid son William Walloppe the elder to remain to mine heirs forever. And also I give and bequeath an annuity to my foresaid son William Walloppe the elder of three pounds six shillings and eight pence during his life natural to be paid yearly by the hands of my heirs and executors out of my manors of Morebath of Devonshire and Bury Barleth in Somersetshire. And also I give and bequeath to my son Johne Walloppe forty pounds of good and lawful money of England to be paid to him out of my foresaid manors in Devonshire and Somersetshire. And also I give and bequeath to my son Johne Walloppe forty pounds of good and lawful money of England to be paid to him out of my foresaid manors in Devonshire and Somersetshire by the hands of my heirs and executors. And also I give and bequeath to my son Michael Walloppe ten pounds of good and lawful money of England by the year during his life natural to be paid unto him by my heirs and executors out of my foresaid manors in Devonshire and Somersetshire. And also I give and bequeath to my son William Walloppe the younger all my farm with all the lands, housings, barns and stables belonging to the said farm now in the tenure and occupying of [missing] Cobden in the county of Sussex during the natural life of my foresaid son William Walloppe the younger. And also I give to my said son William Walloppe the younger an annuity of four pounds thirteen shillings and four pence to be paid him yearly during his natural life by the hands of my heirs and executors out of my foresaid manors of Morebath in Devonshire and Burye Barleth in Somersetshire.

And also I give and bequeath to my said son William the younger a long standing gilt cup of silver that Sir William Poulett gave his mother at his Christening. And also I give and bequeath to my son Stephen Walloppe four pounds of good and lawful money of England to be paid to him as annuity during his natural life, out of my manors of Morebath in Devonshire and Bury Barleth in Somersetshire by the hands of my heirs and executors. And also I give and bequeath to my daughter Grace Walloppe to her marriage four hundred marks of good and lawful money of England to be levied and paid to her out of my manors of Morebath in Devonshire and Bury Barleth in Somersetshire and if she die before she be lawfully married then this legacy to stand void and of none effect. And I will that my heirs and executors shall give her yearly after my death six pounds of good and lawful money by the year until she come to the age of twenty years to find her withal. But if she marry in the mean space then the annuity to stand void. And also I give and bequeath to my daughter Anne Walloppe to her marriage three hundred marks of good and lawful money of England to be paid her by the hands of my heirs and executors out of my manors of Morebath in Devonshire and Bury Barleth in Somersetshire and her to have as much by the year as her sister Grace has and the same to cease as her sister's does. And also I give and bequeath to my daughter Smith in consideration that she had but a small portion to her marriage twenty pounds of good and lawful money of England to be paid her out of my said manors. And also I give and bequeath to my daughter Rose Lambarte's son Oliver Lambert my godson, when he shall come to the age of twenty years in consideration that my said daughter Rose had nothing to her marriage, fifty marks of good and lawful money of England. And also I give and bequeath upon the same consideration to my daughter Lamberte's daughter Anne Lambert, to her marriage fifty marks to be paid them out of my manors aforesaid, if Oliver Lambert live till he come to the age of twenty years, and also if Anne live to the same age or be married before, to be paid her by my heirs and executors out of my manors before rehearsed. And also I give and bequeath to my sister leven an annuity of forty shillings by the year during her natural life to be paid her by the hands of my heirs or executors out of my foresaid manors in Devonshire and Somersetshire.

And also I give and bequeath to Johne Hamington my servant in consideration of his good service that he has done me, an annuity of forty shillings by the year during his natural life to be paid him out of my foresaid manors in Devonshire and Somersetshire. And also I give and bequeath to Valentine Kember my old servant in consideration of his good service that he has done me an annuity of forty shillings by the year during his natural life to be paid him by the hands of my heirs and executors out of my foresaid manors in Devonshire and Somersetshire. And also I give and bequeath to Johne Warthe my servant in consideration of his good service that he has done me an annuity of forty shillings by the year during his natural life to be paid him by the hands of my heirs and executors out of my foresaid manors in Devonshire and Somersetshire. And also I give and bequeath to Johne Lenarde my servant in consideration of his good service that he has done me an annuity of forty shillings by the year during his natural life to be paid him by the hands of my heirs and executors out of my foresaid manors in Devonshire and Somersetshire. And also I give and bequeath to all my servants as well men servants as women to every of them such whole year's wages as they had of me by the year while I was alive. And also I give and bequeath to my kinsman William Pistor the younger of London six pounds six shillings and eight pence of good and lawful money of England to be paid him by the hands of my heirs and executors out of my foresaid manors.

And also I give and bequeath to my brother Gifforde my best gown (my gown the fur of sables excepted). Moreover also I give to my daughter Smith two kine and also to my daughter Grace I give one cow, a gown of satin raised and a kirtell of black velvet tuft. And also I give to Anne Walloppe my daughter one cow a kirtell of stitched canvas with sleeves lined with gold satinet and a chain of gold weighing three pounds, and a ring of gold with six gems. And also I give to William Philipps my servant one cow. And also I give to Elinor Canner my servant one cow and four pounds of lawful money of England. And also I give and bequeath to Henrye Walloppe my son all my plate, money and cattle, goods movable and unmovable whatsoever they be by this present testament unbequeathed or given by my lifetime. Provided always that if my son Henrye Walloppe without accomplishing and fulfilling of this my last will and testament depart this life; that then I will my son William Walloppe the elder to have my said manors above rehearsed for the performance of the same until such time as it be fulfilled in all points. And also further I will and appoint that if my said son Henrye Walloppe depart this world without leaving any heir male of his body lawfully begotten that then all my lands, tenements and hereditaments shall descend to my son William Walloppe the elder, my second son, and to the heirs males of his body lawfully begotten. And for default of such heirs to my son Richard Walloppe and to the heirs males of his body lawfully begotten. And for default of such heirs to my son Johnne Walloppe and to the heirs males of his body lawfully begotten. And for default of such heirs of his body to my son Michael Walloppe and to the heirs males of his body lawfully begotten. And for default of such heirs to my son William Walloppe the younger and his heirs of his body lawfully begotten. And for the default of such heirs to my son Steven Walloppe and to his heirs males of his body lawfully begotten. And for lack of such heirs to remain to the right heirs. And also I will that if any of my sons or daughters depart this life before the legacies be paid or be to them, that then the payment and bequest thereof to such as shall so die to be void and my executor and his heirs thereof to be acquitted and discharged, anything to the contrary before rehearsed in any wise notwithstanding.

And also I give to Anne Walloppe my daughter a little silver flagon and a silver salt gilt with a cover. And also I give and bequeath to my son Stephen Walloppe all my lands and tenements with all manner housings, barns, stables, underwoods during his natural life being now in the tenure and occupying of John Gyett, John Collier and Thomas Annett in Appleshaw in the parish of Fyfield in the county of Southampton. And also I give to my son William Walloppe the elder a silver spoon gilt. And also I give to William Austen my boy twenty shillings. And also I give to Peter Tillburowe my boy twenty shillings.

And also I do ordain and make overseers of this my last good will and testament my trusty and well beloved friends Sir William Keylwaye knight and Richard Kingsmill esquire and for their pains in token of my good will to them, I give to either of them four old angels to put in rings that they may wear them in remembrance of me. And moreover I give to Robert Lee for the good service that he has done me an annuity of forty shillings by the year during his natural life to be paid him by the hands of my heirs and executors out of my foresaid manors in Devonshire and Somersetshire.

In witness of this my last will and testament to be true I have subscribed my name with my own hand and have set my seal the day and year above written in the presence of my son William Walloppe the elder, John Allen parson of Cliddesden, Johne Hamington and John Leachtcher.

Also I Oliver Walloppe knight determine and will these parcels following to be annexed to my last will and testament over and besides that I have given and bequeathed to my son William Walloppe the elder. In my last will and testament I give and bequeath unto him six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence to be paid unto him by my son Henry Walloppe and my executors out of my lands in my last will mentioned. Item I give to the parish church of Farleigh three pounds. Item I give to the parish church of Cliddesden forty shillings.

Memorandum that where in my lifetime I sent by William Walope the elder my son unto Mr Edmund clerk of Micheldever one flagon chain of twenty pounds in gold and upwards and eight pounds of gold, a gold ring with a turquoise in it and a hoop of gold weighing 20s all which I have left with the said Edmund to the use of Grace Walloppe my daughter, to be delivered unto her at the day of her marriage. And if she happen to die before she be lawfully married then I will the said chain and eight pounds of ready money which is appointed for a pair of bracelets and two rings aforesaid to be delivered to Anne Walloppe her sister at the time of her marriage. And if it happen that the same Grace and Anne Walloppe do die before they be lawfully married, then I will the chain aforesaid to remain to William Walloppe the younger and the eight pounds of money and the 2 rings to remain to Steaven Walloppe his brother.

These parcels I, the said Oliver Walloppe, have willed and determined to be annexed to my last will and testament the tenth day of February in the year of our Lord 1565 in the presence of my son William Walloppe the elder, John Allen parson of Cliddesden, John Hamington and John Leather aforesaid. Also whereas I have in my testament before willed and bequeathed to my son Michael scholar in New College Oxford £10 by the year during his natural life out of my lands in Devonshire and Somersetshire I do revoke and call back that legacy and in lieu and stead thereof bequeath unto him one hundred pounds to be paid to my said son by my forenamed son and executor out of my manors of Morebath and Bury Barleth in the counties aforesaid. This parcel last above rehearsed I, the said Oliver Walloppe, have willed and determined to be annexed to my last will and testament the fifteenth day of February in the year of our Lord aforesaid, and in the presence of the witnesses above rehearsed.

Probate was granted 16 day of May 1566 to be administered by the executor named in the will.

The inventory of all the goods as well movable as unmovable of Sir Oliver Wallopp Knight late deceased, taken and valued by John Allen clerk, John Hangmingtonne, John Grauntam and John Wrathe the sixth day of May AD 1566.
