

John Clarke [1683]

A true & iuste Inventorye of all the goods Cattell & Chattels of John Clarke late of Kirbye mucklesse in the County of Leicester lately dyed possessed of, taken & apprised by John Adcock of Ratby in the Countye aforesaid yeom[an] Thomas Penforde of Kirby mucklesse afouresaide yeom[an] & Robert Parker of Desforde in the County aforesaide yeom[an] and Richard Clarke of Kirby mucklesse aforesaide husbandman & Francis Clarke of Kirby mucklesse aforsaide Husbandman

	£	–	s	–	d
Imp[rimis] his purse & wearinge apparell	00	–	19	–	0
In the hall one Cubberd two Chaires & some other lumber	00	–	05	–	0
In the furthestmost parlour one bedsted with bedinge & furniture there unto belonging one table one Chest & other lumber	02	–	05	–	0
In the other parlour one bedsted & bedinge & other lumber	02	–	00	–	0
All the Cheese	01	–	00	–	0
All the brasse & pewter in the Dary with other lumber	01	–	00	–	6
two mares & Foales one colt and one Filly	12	–	0	–	0
Six kine	12	–	0	–	0
four yearelinge heyfers & one yearelinge bull & six Calves	06	–	0	–	0
Forty ewes & one Ram & two and forty lamb hoggs	35	–	0	–	0
three swine	01	–	0	–	0
all the corne	18	–	0	–	10
all the hay	06	–	0	–	00
Carts plowes harrowes & geeres	01	–	19	–	06
	£	–	s	–	d
Summa Tot[alis]	99	–	9	–	10

John Adcock
Tho[mas] Penford
Rob[ert] Parker
Richard Clarke
his marke
Francis Clarke
his marke

LLRRO: PR/1/85/122