

Rowland Braunch of Eastnor, yeoman, 1636

Rowland Braunch of Eastnor, yeoman, 1636

Ref: TNA, PROB11/171

In the name of God, Amen. The 9th day of May A.D.1636 in the 12th year of the reign of Charles, by the grace of God king of England etc., Rowland Braunch of Eastnor in the county of Hereford, yeoman, being sick in body but of good and perfect remembrance, did declare his nuncupative will, in manner following: viz. being told that if he died his wife would be but little the better for him, he said he would give unto her all that he had, save only his wearing apparel which he would dispose of at his pleasure and said that he would give of the apparel to Edmund Turner of Eastnor a doublet, a pair of boots, his hat and a band, and to Richard Braunch his brother all the rest of his clothes, which he declared in the presence of John Baldwin and Richard Turner.

Administration of his goods granted 23 June 1636 to Margery Braunch, his widow.

Note: Rowland Branch was buried at Eastnor on 11 May 1636 (Herefs. RO B093/1).
