

Thomas Bundy of Bosbury, 1674

Thomas Bundy of Bosbury, 1674

HRO Ref. 42/3/3

The Account of Thomas Bundy the natural and lawful son and administrator of all and singular the goods chattels and debts of Thomas Bundy late of the parish of Bosbury in the county of Hereford deceased, made as well to his receipts as disbursements by virtue of his administration as followeth, viz:

The Charge

Imprimis This accountant chargeth himself with the sum of the thirty-six pounds seven shillings eight pence in full of of all and singular the goods chattels and debts of the said deceased £36 7s. 8d.

The Discharge

Imprimis This accountant hath paid to Arthur Booth a debt due by the deceased £22

Item the deceased's funeral expenses 20s.

Item This accountant craveth to be allowed the sum of ten pounds due by the deceased to this accountant £10

Item This accountant hath paid to John and George Bundy the sons of the deceased in full for their share of the surplussage [surplus] of the said deceased's goods 40s.

Item paid for letters of administration of the deceased's goods and for drawing and engrossing of his account and other charges incident hereto 18s.

Suma Exonerationis £35 18s.

The mark of Thomas Bundy

The balance of 9s. 8d. paid into the accountant's hands [Latin] 6th November: 1674