

Stephen Wallop of Farleigh Wallop, 1527

Ref: Hants. RO 1527B/23

In Dei Nomine Amen the year of our Lord God 1526 the last day of August, I Stephen Wallop good in remembrance and sick in body do make my testament and will after this form and manner. First I do give and bequeath my soul unto Almighty God and my body to be buried in the parish church of Farleigh. Item my debts paid I give and bequeath to Saint Swithuns our cathedral church 12d. Item I give and bequeath to the parish church of Cliddesden 6s 8d. Item I give and bequeath to the parish church of Farleigh 10s. Item my mind and last will is that dame Agnes Harley my wife should have again all her goods and stuff of household that she brought to me at the time of her marriage. And moreover I do give and bequeath her the featherbed and the bolster that is in the great chamber and the counterpoint of the bed in the parlour, 2 pairs of sheets, 2 blankets, 2 carpet cushions, a carpet, 4 spoons of silver and a little goblet of silver, a broken piece of silver, a little salt of silver, a grey gelding. Item I give and bequeath to Elisabeth my daughter in law my best salt of silver and the tester in the parlour. Item I do give and bequeath to my daughter Margarete Barnaby my best goblet of silver and my silver spoons, the which my mind and last will is that she shall take for all that that I did promise her unto her marriage. Item I give and bequeath to Robert Arden a black horse and my best furred gown and a jerkin of damask. Item I give and bequeath to my servant William Byllet a bay gelding and a furred gown. Item I give and bequeath to Sir Thomas Lodge priest my counter in the hall. Item I give and bequeath to Alys Jeffrey my servant a brass pan, a brass pot, 6 pewter dishes, a spit, a candlestick and a little chest. And the residue of my goods I give and bequeath to Dame Agnes Harley my wife whom I have made and ordained to be my true and lawful executrix, she to dispose and order the said goods for the health of my soul after her mind and discretion. This is my last will in witness whereof Sir John Wallop Knight and Sir Thomas Lodge priest with others then present.

Probate was granted 31 January 1527/8.