

Will of John Garnett, clerk, 1813.

Will of John Garnett, rector of Cliddesden and of Farleigh Wallop, 1813

Ref: TNA PROB11/1543/224

This is the last will and testament of John Garnett, Doctor of Divinity, Dean of Exeter, I give and bequeath unto my faithful servant William Nowman an annuity of fifty pounds a year for and during the time of his natural life to be paid quarterly at Lady Day, Midsummer, Michaelmas and Christmas clear of all deductions and the first payment to be (~~xxxxxx~~) made on such of the days as shall happen next after my decease also I give to my housekeeper Mrs Fuller for her life an annuity of twenty pounds to be paid to her quarterly in like manner also I give to my coachman John Smith for his life an annuity of ten pounds to be paid to him quarterly in like manner and as to the rest and residue of all my real and personal estate whatsoever and wheresoever I give devise and bequeath the same unto my nephews and nieces the children of my late dear sister Amelia Halls their heirs executors administrators equally to be divided between them share and share alike as tenants in common and not as joint tenants and I nominate constitute and appoint my nephew Thomas Halls of Lincolns Inn Esquire and John Hanson of Chancery Lane, London, Esquire executors of this my will and testament and I do revoke all former wills by me at any time heretofore made and do declare this only to be my last will in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 11th March in the year of our 1813 John Garnett signed, sealed, published and declared by the said John Garnett the testator as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us who in his presence at his request and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses: Henry Ainslie, W. Broad, Robert Dennison.

Proved at London 8th April 1813, administration was granted to Thomas Halls & John Hanson, executors.