

Richard Passion of Steventon, yeoman, 1689

Ref: Hants. RO 1689B/31

There are two versions of the will, one presumably written in his own hand, the other neatly done.

I do bequeath my soul to Almighty God. This is my last will and testament. My house and stock to my wife, and if my wife have no occasion to sell the said house or occupation, it shall fall to my son Richard without loss or molestation to him and his heirs forever being in Monk Sherborne.
