

Thomas Ives of Up Nately, yeoman, 1629
Ref: Hants RO 1629AD/37

In the name of God Amen the 17th day of July Anno Domini 1629, Thomas Ives of Up Nately in the county of Southampton yeoman, made and ordained this his last will and testament nuncupative, or by word of mouth, in manner and form following. First he commended his soul into the hands of Almighty God and committed his body to the earth to be buried in Christian burial. As for his worldly goods where which God had blessed him he gave and bequeathed as follow. First he gave the five of his Children (viz) Agnis. Jane. Ann. Elizabeth and Rachel six pounds apiece to be taken out of the stock without doors. All the rest of his goods and chattels within doors and without, after the said legacies be paid, to be equally divided amongst these five and his other two children, and every one to have an equal portion therein. This he acknowledged to be his last will testament nuncupative in the presence of those whose names are subscribed.

A true inventory of all the movable goods, cattle and chattels ~~that late of were~~ Thomas Ives of Up Nately in the county of Southampton yeoman deceased, taken the seventh day of August Anno Domini 1629, ~~in the fifth year of the reign of our sovereign Lord Charles by the grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France and Ireland defender of the faith etc.~~ valued and appraised by Henry Eaire, Thomas Beery, John Dredge and William Goodier as follows.

	£	s	d
Imprimis in the hall one cupboard with other stuff	0	13	0
Item in the kitchen one kettle pan and pot with other stuff	1	6	0
Item his wearing apparel and money in his purse	1	0	0
Item in the buttery one barrel and kiver	0	4	0
Item in the chamber one bed, one chest with other stuff	1	0	0
Item in the other chamber one bed and bedstead and other stuff	1	10	0
Item the pewter	0	5	0
Item the corn upon the ground	12	0	0
Item one nag and two mares	6	0	0
Item two kine and one bullock	5	10	0
Item the hogs	1	0	0
Item the hay	1	10	0
Item the cart	2	0	0
Item three harrows	0	3	4
Sum total	35	1	[4]

Two probate documents or bonds survive relating to Richard Fisher and Richard Wilmot both husbandmen of Up Nately who were to administer the goods and chattels during the minority of the five children and for the use of the children.