

Christopher Patricke of Basingstoke, fellmonger, 1645
Ref: Hants. RO 1645AD/46

An inventory of the goods and chattels of Christopher Patricke late of Basingstoke fellmonger deceased, taken and appraised by William Herne and Robert Smyth of Basingstoke the nine and twentieth day of March 1645 as follows viz:

	£	s	d
Imprimis In the hall: one small joined table with a frame, three joined stools, one joined cupboard, two chairs, a pair of andirons, a pair of cotterels, one gridiron, a pair of bellows, a fire pan and a pair of tongs, one wooden mortar, two wooden candlesticks, two brass candlesticks, two brass kettles, a brass pan, two brass pots, three brass skillets, two pewter candlesticks, one pewter salt cellar, seven pewter platters, two serving dishes, two saucers, two pewter dishes and an iron dripping pan	2	0	11
Item in the buttery: three barrels, two trays, two bowls, two tubs, two kivers, one wheel, one stake to stake out leather with other lumber, a paring knife and a beame knife	0	12	4
Item in the chamber: one standing bedstead with mat and cord, one flockbed, two flock bolsters, one feather bolster, one flock pillow, one feather pillow, one blanket, two pairs of sheets, three pillow beres, two tablecloths, two coverlets, half a dozen of napkins	2	3	8
Item in the rest of the rooms: in the house in barley and malt, fifteen quarters at 16s the quarter	12	0	0
Item one chest, three cofferes, one joined table with a frame, one joined form, a little cupboard, a little box and two dozen of trenchers	0	8	10
Sum total is	17	5	9

William Herne
Robert Smith

Probate granted 9 April 1645 [missing]