

Annes/Agnes Newell of Up Nately, widow, 1611

Ref: Hants. RO 1611B/49

In the name of God Amen I Annes Newell of Up Nately in the county of Southampton widow, being somewhat crazed in body, but of good understanding, and perfect remembrance thanks be given unto Almighty God therefore, do make, constitute and pronounce this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following. First and above all things I commend my soul unto the merciful hands of God my creator, hoping assuredly through the only merits of Jesus Christ only saviour and redeemer to be made partaker of life everlasting, and I commit my body to the earth whereof it was made. Item I give and bequeath unto the Trinity Church of Winchester four pence, and I give towards the reparations of the parish church of Up Nately aforesaid twelve pence, and towards the reparations of the church of Rotherwick in the said county of Southampton twelve pence. Item I give and bequeath unto my sister Marye Heathe five shillings to be paid unto her at the end of one whole year next after my decease if she be then living, for my intent and meaning is that no gift or legacy contained or set down in this my present last will and testament shall be paid until one whole year next after my decease be fully expired. Item I give unto my godson Nicholas Powlter twelve pence, and unto my godson Robert Newell twelve pence. Item I give unto my goddaughter Annes Willmote twelve pence, and to my goddaughter Annes Colman twelve pence. Item I give unto John Dinninge twenty shillings, and to my servant Annes Lilywhite two shillings. Item I give unto my servant Roberte Dinninge a teg sheep. Provided always my intent and meaning is that if it shall happen that any of the parties before named do decease within ~~whole~~ one whole year next after my decease, before which time I would not have any of the aforesaid legacies to be paid, then I will and bequeath the legacy of him, her, or them so dying, to remain unto my executors or the survivor of them to their own uses. The residue of my goods and chattels (my funeral expenses being made, my legacies performed and my debts paid), I give and bequeath unto my brother Christopher Woddeson of Rotherwick aforesaid, and John Woddeson his son. And I do make and appoint the said Christopher and John to and survivors of them to be the sole executors of this my last will and testament. And I do constitute and make my honest neighbours and friends Robert Freston and Richard Benman the supervisors of this my last will and testament to see the same duly and truly executed and performed according unto my true intent and meaning, and for their pains therein to be taken I do give unto either of them three shillings and four pence apiece. In witness whereof to this my present will I have set my hand and seal the twelfth day of December in the fourth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord James by the grace of God of England, France and Ireland, King, defender of faith etc. and in the fortieth year of his reign over Scotland, Anno Domini 1606.
