

Thomas Belchamber of Cliddesden, 1643

Ref: Hants. RO 1643AD/06

An inventory of the goods of Thomas Belchamber of Cliddesden lately deceased valued and praised October 26th 1643 by those neighbours whose names are here underwritten.

	£	s	d
Imprimis in the parlour one featherbed with the appurtenances thereunto belonging valued at	3	0	0
Item in the same parlour one great chest, one table, one court cupboard, four chairs, six cushions and two carpets	1	10	0
In the buttery one steel malt mill, four barrels, and one tub	0	15	0
In the chamber over the parlour two bedsteads, one featherbed, one pair of sheets and one blanket	1	10	0
In the same one old coffer, one pillow, one cushion, and a cradle	0	5	0
In the hall two old tables, two forms, one chair, and one cupboard	1	0	0
In the same one fire shovel, one pair of tongs, and one pair of andirons	0	5	0
Item in the kitchen half a dozen of pewter, two flagons and one salt	0	13	4
In the same kitchen two iron kettles, one iron pot	0	15	0
In the same kitchen two brass kettles, three brass skillets, two spits and one pair of cotterells	0	1	6
In the same kitchen old knives, dishes, and other old lumber	0	5	0
In the milkhouse , six trays, two knives and one powdering tub	0	10	0
In the same house two pigs in salt	1	0	0
In the aforesaid kitchen one warming pan and a furnace	0	10	0
In the wellhouse one bucket, chain and rope with other lumber	0	10	0

Thomas Belchamber of Cliddesden, 1643

Item for swine	6	0	0
Item for one cow	2	0	0
Item one blind horse	0	10	0
Item harness, old ploughs, and carts	1	10	0
Item corn in the barn	20	0	0
Item fifteen acres of corn in the fields	10	0	0
Item two poor sheep	0	5	0
Item for two tablecloths and ten diaper napkins	1	0	0
Item for wool money received	4	11	9
Item upon diverse desperate speacialties	50	0	0
Sum total	109	3	1

Henry Avenell, Henry Barret, Thomas Frie his mark

Proved 22 March 1643/4.