

Thomas Minchen of Dummer, husbandman 1633

Ref: Hants. RO 1633A/48

The last will and testament of Thomas Minchen of Dummer in the county of Southampton husbandman made May the 9th 1633 he being then in perfect memory but by reason of a sudden accident died the same day. We whose names are underwritten are witnesses that he bequeathed his goods and chattels in form and manner following.

Imprimis he gave unto his son Steeven his house wherein he last dwelt with the land appertaining and occupying unto it.

Item he gave to his son Steeven one joined bedstead in his bed chamber and one table standing in the hall and a form and a bench with the wainscot in the hall.

Itemhe gave to his son Thomas the house which Steeven Baker lives in with the garden and orchard.

Item he gave to his son Thomas five pounds of good and current money to be paid by his wife out of the stock.

Itemhe gave unto his daughter [Annis] five pounds of good and current money to be paid by his wife out of the stock.

Itemhis will was that his wife shall have the living that she lives in until Steeven is of age to the end that she should maintain the children.

Itemhis will was that whatsoever goods and chattels he died possessed of and has not bequeathed, that his wife should have them to pay his debts and help breed up his children.

Itemhis will was that his wife should be the sole executrix of this his last will and testament.

In witness herein we have put our hands May 14th 1633.
