

Basingstoke 1881 Census

District 1:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing with the house of Mr Walter Wallis and taking those of Mr Burberry, Captain May and others near, returning to cottages at the corner of Back Lane on the south side of the same road and Winchester Street including the house of Mrs Adams (brewer), thence taking all the houses on the west side of Victoria Street and including Victoria Villas, the cottages opposite and the Cattle Market Inn, returning and taking the houses on the east side of Victoria Street to and including the Tuns Inn, thence taking the south side of Winchester Street, the Market Place on London Street respectively including the houses in Castons Road and Cambridge Terrace and the cottage near in the occupation of Mr G W Willis also including the house in Blundens Yard, the County Police Station and houses in Mark Lane, turning into Hackwood Road and taking the houses on the west side including the Cottage Hospital then taking all the houses on both sides of Southern Road into the Hackwood Road again and taking the houses on the west side thereof and the houses of both sides of Cliddesden Road including that of Mrs Stark and the cottages in the rear thence to the Shrubbery and Lodge and terminating with Froyle Lodge and Coombhurst.

District 2:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing at the cottages in the Winchester Road opposite Back Lane taking the houses on the north side of Winchester Road to and including the houses in Bramley Lane, continuing the north side of Winchester Road, thence taking all the houses on the west side of Sarum Hill, then crossing the road and taking the New Inn, Wilton Place and the other houses on the east side of Sarum Hill to and including the Wheatsheaf Inn, then taking the houses on the north side of Winchester Street including those of Mr A White, Mr Wadmore and Mr Tyrell, crossing the Market Place and taking the houses on the east side thereof to Mr Buckland's to Mr Sapp's inclusive, then taking all the houses on the north side of London Street, then to the corner of New Road including those in the Chapel [Yard], and Sydenham Place and the Red Lion Tap, thence taking all the houses on the east side of New Road including the two in the rear of the others occupied by Dudman and Collins, thence to Eastlands, then to the White Hart Inn and taking all the houses on that side of London Road to Hackwood Road, then taking all the houses on the east of the Hackwood Road, then to the Lamb Public House and the other houses on the west of Hackwood Road and terminating with Goldings Lodge and the two houses at the gates of Basingstoke Common.

District 3:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke starting at the Ship Inn and taking all the houses on the west side of Church Street including Mr Smith and Mr Jackson at the corners of Cross Street and including the Rectory, thence taking all the houses on the west side of Chapel Street to the point where that street is crossed by the railway, then returning and taking all the houses on the east side of Chapel Street including the Rose Inn, thence taking Mr Portsmouth's house and the other houses on the east side of Church Street including the Rose and Crown Inn and Mr Soper's house at the corner of Potters Lane and terminating with Mr Temple's house.

On the west side of Church Street and nearly at the bottom is the church of St Michael and all Angels being the (only and) parish church.

District 4:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing at Mr A Portsmouth's house taking the houses on the west side of Wote Street to Potters Lane, then taking all the houses both north and south of Potters Lane omitting the Rose and Crown Inn and Mr Soper's house but including Mr Redgroves and others, returning to the Angel Inn and taking all the houses on the west side of Wote Street including both sides of Bedford Place and the cottage at the rear of Mr White's (cooper), and also including the house of Mr Barrow, surgeon and the Barge Inn, thence up the Station Hill taking the houses on both sides thereof including Clifton Terrace, returning to and taking the cottage occupied by Mr Haywood opposite the Barge Inn, thence to the cottages on the south side of Goat Lane and the west side of New Road to and including the cottage of Nathaniel Terry, then returning to the house of Mr Hine called the Gridiron and taking all the houses on the east side of Wote Street and terminating with the house formerly the Fox and Hounds Inn.

District 5:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing at the steam laundry, thence to the sewage works, and proceeding thence westward taking all the houses on the north side of Basing Road (except the thatched cottages in Eastrop parish), but including Hollins Grove and the cottages in the road leading from the Basing Road to Mr J W Smith's shop in the Reading Road, continuing north side of Basing Road to the Engineer's Arms, then taking all the houses on the south side of the Reading Road, then to the houses of Mr Henry Portsmouth and Col. Bickerstaff, thence to Mr Walker's house between the two lines of railway, returning on the Reading Road and taking all the houses between the same road and the London and South Western Railway line, thence taking the east side of Bunyan (sic.) Place, thence to the South Western Railway station taking same and the Refreshment Rooms, thence returning and taking the houses on the west side of Bunnian Place and the houses on the north side of the Reading Road and Brook Street but excluding the Rose Inn to the house of Mr W H Blatch and the houses on the same side of the road to and including the house of Mr Thomas White and the adjoining house and terminating therewith.

District 6:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing at the house of Mr Miller in Church Square taking all the houses in the square, Elbow Corner and Church Cottage, thence taking all the houses in Church Lane and the north and south of Cross Street (excepting those of Mr Smith, grocer and Mr Jackson, draper), but including the cottages in Windover Street, thence taking all the houses on both sides of New Street, excepting those of Mr Wadmore and Mr White, returning to and taking all the houses on both sides of Flaxfield Road (including Poplar Cottage), up to but excepting the New Inn at the foot of Sarum Hill.

District 7:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing at and including Hackwood Lodge, thence to the Keeper's House in Hackwood Park, thence to the Grove and the cottage near, thence to the Golden Lion, thence to Cliddesden taking all the houses that are in Basingstoke parish including Coldharbour but excluding Mr Pain's lodge, thence to Viabes Farm, thence to the house called White House and to the Stag and Hounds Inn, then on to the Down Grange and to the Down Farm and cottages near, then to the cottages recently erected near, then to Buckskin Farm and cottages, thence to the cottages at Cranbourne Lodge and terminating therewith.

District 8:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing at North Ham, thence to Gas House Road, Gas House Row and Norman Place taking all the houses there in Basingstoke parish, then to and terminating with Mr Portsmouth's mill and the cottages near.

This District also includes the whole of Eastrop parish, not covered by this study.

District 9:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing at the Queen's School then to the house of Captain Warwick on the Worting Road, then to Miss Simmons' and Grove Cottage then to the cottages in the lane adjoining, proceeding to West Ham and the cottages, thence to the Bury Farm and the signalman's house on the railway, thence to the two lodges of West Ham on the Worting Road, thence to South Ham, Worting Bottom, Worting Town's End, Cold Harbour and Worting Wood.

This District also includes the whole of Worting parish, not covered by this study.

District 10:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing at the Great Western Railway Station thence to and taking the houses in Phoenix Park Terrace, thence to South View and Lodge and Mr Marsh's house near, thence to Hill Side and the house of Miss Hunt, then taking all the houses on both sides of Burgess Road, thence to the house of Mr Gerald Stephens, thence to and taking St Thomas' Home and Lodge, and the house and lodge belonging to Mr W H Bayley, then on the Sherborne Road taking the house known as The Soldier's Return and the cottages near, thence to the cottages formerly belonging to Mr George Carr, then returning on the Sherborne Road to the Cemetery Lodge and taking the same and The Rising Sun and Half Moon Public Houses and terminating at the premises of Messrs Davis and Stephens on the north of the railway.

District 11:

Part of the parish of Basingstoke commencing at Bath Terrace and taking there, continuing to Brook Street and taking the houses near the Old Silk Mill, thence to Ford's Building and the houses opposite the same there taking The Cricketers' Public House, the Infectious Hospital, the cottages known as the Pest House and the whole of the houses in Long Croft known as New Town that is all between the railway and Water Lane, thence to Noah's Island, Castleman's cottages near the osier beds and Hog Mead, then taking the houses in Stanleigh Terrace and those in the Essex and Rayleigh Roads, thence to Mr Booker's and the other houses on the Worting Road to, but exclusive of, the Queen's School.

The Basingstoke Union Workhouse has been enumerated separately, but is not covered by this study.