

Trustram Wattmer of Basingstoke, clothier, 1667

Ref: Hants. RO 1667B/61

Know all men that I Trustram Wattmer of Basingstoke in the county of Southampton clothier being in bodily health and in perfect memory, the Lord be praised, I do in the name of God make my last will and testament in manner and form as follows. First and above all I bequeath my soul to God my Creator and Redeemer and my body to Christian burial to be interred in the common burial place in Basingstoke. Item I give to my son Richard one shilling. Item I give to my son Robert that part of the house the he now lives in during his life and all my wearing apparel. Item I give to my son John the chamber over Robert's room so long as he lives unmarried. Also my will and pleasure is my son Trustram shall have all and every parcel of my freeland to him and his heirs forever and for want of heirs of his body then to my son Robert for his life, and after his decease to his son Robert and his heirs. Item my will and pleasure is that Jane my wife shall enjoy all those goods that she brought with her and also that stock that shall be then going at the day of my decease for her life and after my death I shall leave it to her to bestow it on my children, I mean the worth of that stock that then shall be with her hands to be distributed amongst them and to no other persons whatsoever after her decease. All the rest of my goods unbequeathed I give to my son Trustram whom I make my full and sole executor. In witness I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th of December 1662. Trustram Wattmor.

Singed sealed and delivered in the presence of Richard Hawkins, the mark of John Watts.

Probate granted 13 September 1667 to his son, Trustram

28 October 1667

An inventory taken of all the goods and chattels of Trustram Wattmore late of Basingstoke in the county of Southampton deceased made and appraised by us whose names are hereunto subscribed the 28th day of October 1667.

	£	s	d
Imprimis the wearing apparel of woollen and linen of the said Trustram Wattmore deceased valued at	2	0	0
In the chamber over the hall
An old joined bedstead, mat and cord	0	10	0
One coffer and one trunk	0	3	0
One chest and one other coffer	0	5	0
One sheet	0	2	6
One bed and [eeke] and bolster and one blanket	0	10	0
One form	0	2	0
4 pieces of pewter and some other old pewter	0	10	0
One brass candlestick	0	1	0
One piece of linsey wolsey 10 yards	0	10	0
Sum	4	13	6

In the hall

One table and joined frame	0	5	0
One double cupboard	0	5	0
One iron spit	0	1	0
One smoothing iron	0	1	0
One little low chair	0	0	6
5 books	0	4	0
One little brass mortar	0	2	0
One brass skimmer	0	0	6
One brass pot, one kettle, one skillet, one frying pan	0	10	6
3 little cheese vats	0	1	0
One pair of bellows	0	0	6
One linen wheel	0	1	0
One bucking tub, one kiver, 2 buckets and one barrel	0	5	0
Sum	1	17	0

In the barn

Wheat, barley and dredge corn appraised	3	12	0
One sow and 2 pigs	1	0	0
24 sheep of all sorts	4	10	0
One cow valued	1	10	0
One stall of bees	0	5	0
5lb malt valued	0	10	0
A weaver's loom valued	0	10	0
Sum	11	17	0
Sum total	18	7	6

William Beck, John Kersley (his mark) appraisers.