The mark of William Rimes

Probate granted 27 August 1661 to Richard Barnard the cousin and guardian of Robert Payne, son. Obligation on the same of Basingstoke bricklayer, Thomas Vidler of the parish of St Michael, Winchester, carpenter.

Know all men by these present that I Maria Paine of Basingstoke in the county of Southampton widow, relict of Thomas Payne late of Basingstoke aforesaid in the said county and within the diocese of Winchester, deceased intestate, for divers good causes and valuable considerations me therein moving, have voluntarily and absolutely refused, waived and renounced. And by these present do refuse, waive and renounce all my rights, title and interest which I now have [illegible] right or ought to have of in or to the goods, chattels, credits and debts of the said deceased or any part or parcel thereof or of, in or to the administration thereof. And I do hereby ordain, constitute and appoint John Harfell, Walter Symms and Edward Harfell public notaries, my true lawful procurators jointly and severally for me and in my name to appear before the right worshipful Robert Mason Doctor of Law, Vicar General of the Right Reverend Father in God Brian by God's permission Lord Bishop of Winchester or his lawful surrogate or other competent judge in this behalf at convenient time and place, and for me and in my name to exhibit this my renunciation and to desire and procure the same to be admitted. And further to desire and procure letters of administration of the goods and chattels of the said deceased to be granted to Richard Barnard of Basingstoke aforesaid cousin and guardian of Robert Payne, natural and lawful son and only child of the said deceased during the minority and to the use of the said Robert (the said Richard putting into the court such cautions and security as the laws allow). And I do hereby promise to ratify and confirm whatsoever my said procurator or any of them jointly or severally, shall do in or about the premises by these present. Sealed with my seal dated the nineteenth day of August AD 1661 in the 13th year of Charles the King.

Sealed and delivered in the presence of Richard Chase, Daniell Chase, Mary Paine her mark.
