

Thomas Freeman, Melton Mowbray, 1636

A true and perfect Inventory of all the goodes and Chattells of Thomas Freeman late of Melton
Mowbraye in the County of Leic[ester] deceased had made and prised the tenth Daye of December An[n]o D[omi]ni 1636 by those whose names are subscribed and is as followethe

Imp[remis] his apparrell and his purse	v <sup>s</sup>
It[em] more one table bard	ij <sup>s</sup> viij <sup>d</sup>
It[em] one olde cupbarde	ij <sup>s</sup>
It[em] two bras potts	x <sup>s</sup>
It[em] two bras panns	v <sup>s</sup>
It[em] a spitt a barr to hange thinges over the fire and hookes	xvij <sup>d</sup>
It[em] in the Chamber two olde bedsteds one mattres and other bed clothes	xvij <sup>s</sup>
It[em] one heyfer	xxij <sup>s</sup> iiij <sup>d</sup>
It[em] one Loade of hey	x <sup>s</sup>
It[em] two olde Coffers and wooden dishes and spoones	iiij <sup>s</sup> iiij <sup>d</sup>
It[em] two pewter platters and some olde woode	iiij <sup>s</sup> vj <sup>d</sup>
Sum[m]a totalis is	iiij £ v <sup>s</sup> iiij <sup>d</sup>

Henrie Trigg
William Laine

ROLLR: PR/I/38/199