

Thurcaston, Robert Hopkeyns/Hopkynes, 1546

Be hyt knawen that thys ys a Juste and trew Inventorie mayd in the yere of our lorde god M D xl vj of all the guddes movable and unmovable of Rob[er]t Hopkeyns of Thurkaston laythly departtyd prasyd by iiij honest men that is to say Will[i]a[m] towyth John Bocar? Rich[ard] Kyrke amd Will[iam] Staffard

	£	s	d
In p[ri]mis on carte and carte gayr on plowe harrowes and all thynges belongyng therto viij horse and mayres	iiij	xiiij	iiij
It[em] iiij key iij hefars iiij waynyng calves	iiij	xvj	viiij
It[em] two key		xxvj	viiij
It[em] iij swyn hogys on sowe iij pyges		xviiij
It[em] ix Geys v hennes on coke		ij	iiij
It[em] the howsolde stoufe w[i]t[h] in the house and wode in the harth		xxvj
It[em] the crope th[a]t ys to say corne and hay	iiij	vj	viiij
S[u]m[ma] total[is]	xvj	iiij	viiij

ROLLR, Wills & Inventories, 1546