

Ann Bunny/Bunnye of Basingstoke, widow, 1626
Ref: Hants. RO 1626A/014

Memorandum that at or about the thirtieth day of April in the year of our Lord God 1626 Ann Bunnye of Basingstoke in the county of Southampton widow, being sick in body, but of good and perfect mind and memory did make and declare her last will and testament nuncupative, or by word of mouth, in manner and form following: First of all she commended her soul unto God, and committed her body to the earth. And as touching her worldly goods she ordered and disposed them in manner following, that is to say, whereas her husband Thomas Bunnye late deceased had by his last will and Testament made and ordained her the executrix of his last will and testament, and thereby given divers legacies unto his children, namely unto his son Thomas Bunny and to his four daughters, and that the said legacies were yet unpaid by her by reason that the time limited for the true payment thereof was not come. And for that most of her children are yet in minority and under age her will and meaning was and she did will and bequeath (after all her husband's debts were paid and the legacies therein given were discharged), that all the remainder of the goods which did accrue unto her and that were bequeathed unto her in and by the last will and testament of her late husband Thomas Bunnye, should remain and be equally divided by the overseers of her late husband's will amongst her four daughters, that is to say, Ann Bunny, Amye Bunny, Alice Bunnye and Dorothy Bunnye. And that her four daughters should have the benefit of the land belonging to her late husband according to the true intent and meaning of her late husband's will until her son came to full age, allowing unto her son Thomas eight pounds by the year for his maintenance during his nonage. This she did declare in the presence of Thomas Burbancke, George Herne als Oliver and the widow Wareham
