

William Cocke of Nately Scures, yeoman, 1637
Ref: Hants. RO 1637AD/12

A true inventory of the goods and cattles of William Cocke of the parish of Nately Scures in the county of Southampton yeoman lately deceased, taken and appraised the 5th day of October AD 1637 by John Nutby rector of the said parish, by William Hall and William Amlen as follows.

	£	s	d
Imprimis his wearing apparel	2	0	0
Item in the chamber over the hall 2 bedsteads, 1 feather bed, 3 flock beds, 3 bolsters, 3 pillows, 3 coverlets, 2 blankets, 1 pair of sheets with other linen	5	13	4
Item 4 coffers, 8 barrels with other lumber	1	18	0
Item in the hall 1 table with a frame, 4 joined stools, 1 form, 1 chair	1	0	0
Item 19 pewter platters, 6 saucers, 5 pewter pots, 2 salts	1	10	0
Item 5 brasen candlesticks, 1 chafing dish, 2 brass pots, 4 kettles, 2 skillet, 1 brass pan, 1 furnace	3	0	0
Item in the kitchen the brewing vessels with other lumber	1	10	0
Item in the out-house 1 cupboard, 1 table, 2 forms with other lumber	0	10	0
Item 1 mill	1	0	0
Item in the loft over the out-house 1 table with a frame	0	6	8
Item in hops	2	0	0
Item in peas 3 bushels	0	12	0
Item old wheat 1 quarter	1	10	0
Item cheese 100	1	5	0
Item sacks 4, with other lumber	1	0	0
Item in wheat and oats in the barn	20	0	0
Item in hay	3	0	0
Item 1 plough with the furniture, 2 carts	2	0	0
Item 4 hogs, 3 pigs	2	10	0
Item 3 mares, 1 colt, 2 sucking colts	8	0	0
Item 4 kine, 6 heifers, 2 yearlings	20	0	0
Item in wood	1	0	0
Item in bees	9	0	0
Sum total	90	5	0

Appraised by John Nutby
William Hall
William Amblin

William Cocke of Nately Scures, 1637

Proved 10 October 1637 in front of Alice Cooke, relict. Obligation to William Amlin of Newnham, yeoman.