

Thomas Quaite/Quaitt of Basingstoke, 1672

Ref: TNA PROB 11/340/292

In the name of God Amen, the sixteenth day of January one thousand six hundred seventy one I Thomas Quaite of Basingstoke in the county of Southampton being sick and weak in body but of good and perfect mind and memory, thanks be given to Almighty God, do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following. First and principally I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it assuredly hoping and confidently trusting in His mercy and by the merits, death and passion of His dear Son to obtain remission and forgiveness of all my sins and eternal life in the world to come, and my body to be buried at the discretion of my executrix. Item I give to my sister Joane Quaitt of Farnham after the decease of my dear mother all those my tenements and gardens with the appurtenances lying and being in Beare Lane in Farnham aforesaid during her natural life and after her decease to my cousin Mary Quaitt daughter of my deceased brother John Quaitt and to her heirs forever. All the rest of my goods, cattles and chattels whatsoever do I give and bequeath unto my dear wife Elizabeth Quaitt whom I make and ordain whole and sole executrix of this my last will and testament to whom I give for their pains therein five shillings apiece. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written. Thomas Quaitt.

Signed, sealed and published to be the last will and testament by the said Thomas Quaitt in the presence of us William Coleman, Alexander Kempe, George Searle.

Probate granted in London 9 November 1672 to Elizabeth Quaitt, widow and executrix.
