

John Pewtress of Eastnor, 1669/70

Ref: Herefs. RO 24/3/6

3 March 1669 [1669/70] John Pewtress of Ledbury [yeoman] came into court and said that John Pewtress of Eastnor, deceased, made his will and appointed his wife Margery his executrix. Margery administered some of the testator's goods and credits according to the tenor of his will, but died before administering others. John Pewtress of Ledbury is the testator's son and legatee; he seeks letters of administration.

A true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, cattle, chattels and debts of John Pewtress late, whilst he lived of the parish of Eastnor, deceased, not administered by Margery Pewtress the relict and executrix and named in the last will and testament of the said deceased, made and appraised as followeth:

Imprimis one chattel lease of a house and lands thereunto belonging wherein there are several years yet to come and unexpired, valued above the rent referred at the sum of £10. Appraised by us John Pewtress, Thomas Tomlins

Exhibited 3 March 1669 [1669/70] by John Pewtress, son of the deceased and administrator

Note: The burial register is damaged for 1669/70 [Herefs. RO BO93/2]
