

William Butler of Basingstoke, hosier, 1664
Ref: Hants. RO 1664AD/13

An inventory of the goods and chattels of William Butler of Basingstoke hosier late deceased taken this 16th of September 1664 by us Richard Allen and John Trimmer.

	£	s	d
Imprimis in the kitchen in pewter	2	10	0
Item in brass	2	5	0
Item a jack	0	4	0
Item andirons, spits and other iron things	0	12	0
Item more a cupboard and 2 tables, 3 chairs and 3 stools with other lumber	0	15	0
Item in the chamber over the shop , a bedstead, a rug and a feather bed with other things thereto belonging	6	10	0
Item a table and 5 stools, 1 chair and a carpet	1	0	0
Item in sheets and napkins and other linen	3	10	0
Item 2 chests, a trunk and 2 boxes	1	0	0
Item the chamber over the kitchen , a bedstead and a feather bed and a flock bed with curtains and other things thereto belonging	5	0	0
Item in a little room by a flock bed and other things thereto belonging	1	10	0
Item goods in the shop in stockings	70	18	0
Item more waistcoats, trousers and ferret ribbon with other goods	12	10	0
Item his wearing clothes	5	0	0
Item money in his purse	5	10	0
Item in the cellar , barrels and other brewing vessels	1	5	0
Item a bay mare	2	5	0
	122	4	0

Probate granted 28 September 1664 to Anne Butler, widow. Obligation to the same and Richard White of Basingstoke, clerk.

Accounts of William Butler, 1669

Ref: Hants. RO 21M65/D8/211

The true and perfect account of Anne Butler widow the relict and administratrix of all and singular the goods and chattels of William Butler late of Basingstoke in the county of Southampton and diocese of Winchester deceased intestate, as well of her receipts as of her disbursements by virtue of the letters of administration unto her committed, given and exhibited the nineteenth day of July AD 1669 as follows viz:

	£	s	d
The charge
This accountant charges herself with the sum of one hundred twenty two pounds and four shillings of lawful money of England for the full price and value of all and singular the goods and chattels of the said deceased as the same were indifferently appraised and valued, specified and contained in an inventory thereof made and exhibited remaining on record
Sum of the burden is	122	4	0

Whereof this accountant discharges herself and craves an allowance as follows viz:

The discharge	Imprimis this accountant craves an allowance of the sum of five pounds lawful money of England by her expended and laid forth for the necessary expenses of the funeral of the said deceased	5	0	0
	Item paid by this accountant to Mr George Curwin a hosier in Bread Street, London the sum of five pounds being the proper debt of the said deceased, due and owing at the time of his death for stockings	5	0	0
	Item paid by this accountant for the letters of administration engrossing and exhibiting the inventories, proctor's fee and other charges thereunto incident the sum of	1	5	0
	Item this accountant craves the allowance of 20s for her necessary charges and expences in travelling to Winchester in passing of this Accompt	1	0	0

Item for drawing this account in writing, for engrossing the same, for the fees to the judge, registrar and proctor upon the passing of this account and for the act and actuary's pains	1	7	2
Sum	13	12	2
Remaining in the hands of the accountant and the allowance allowed	108	11	10

Probate granted 10 July 1669 to Ann Butler, widow and administratrix.